Death of Mrs. A. J. Smith.

The death of Mrs. A. J. Smith which occurred at 2:30 Wednesday morning in the Presbyterian hospital, Chicago, caused a shock to her many friends in this city.

Mrs. Smith was taken to the Presbyterian hospital in Chicago just a week ago and the next day suffered a severe surgical operation. The operation was a success and she appeared to be doing nicely under the circumstances, but other complications set in and she lapsed into an unconscious state from which she never rallied.

Deceased was Miss Lucy Vining and she was born in Kankakee county 61 years ago on last January 8. In that county she was married to Austin J. Smith Nov. 14, forty-one years ago. They made their home in Coal City for many years and after her husband was elected county clerk of Grundy county in 1902 they moved to Morris, where they have resided since. Her husband served eight years as county clerk.

Two children were born to their marriage, Herman B. and Miss Edith, who with the father form the law firm of Smith, Smith & Smith in this city, all three being attorneys.

The sympathy of the community is poured out to the bereaved help-mate who is deprived of his counselor and comfort of years and the children who are bereft of a loving and devoted mother.

DOLLAR DAY

THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 19, 1914

BEST BARGAINS EVER OFFERED

If we sold you $2.00 bills for $1.00 on a certain day, would you buy them? Certainly you would. We cannot afford to do anything like that, but we are coming mighty close to it on DOLLAR DAY. We are giving $2.00 worth of merchandise for $1.00 in almost every department. And this is not old merchandise. In fact a lot of it has just been received, but we are willing to sacrifice our profit on it in order to boost future trade. You perhaps know that DOLLAR DAY has ceased to be cleanup day with us and is now a big special day on which we sell new merchandise without profit and sometimes at a loss. You wonder why we do it. Simply to advertise to the people within a radius of forty miles the big advantages to be had by trading at HEENAN'S. We not only want your trade on DOLLAR DAY, we also want it all during the year and we hope to impress you so well this DOLLAR DAY that you will continue to patronize us always.

We refund fare one way on a $10 purchase, both ways on a $20 purchase
