The infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Olson, born a few days ago, died Tuesday night from stomach trouble.

The Morris high school boys easily won from the Morris boys in the basket ball game played there Tuesday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Hagen, who have been living in Chicago, have returned to Morris and will go to farming north of Morris.

The citizens have given up any idea of asking for a vote on the proposition of a thousand dollar license fee at the city election April 21st.

Clyde McClosky, the last of four boys who escaped from Sheriff Francis last December, is now here in jail again, having been returned Saturday night.

Mrs. Edward Overland, and baby, who have been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jens Johnson, of Vincennes, left Monday for their home at Jewell, Iowa.

Tom Lynes finished filling his new ice house north east of Morris. He has about 1,500 tons of ice from the lake in that vicinity that he leased from John Teller.

Stanley Eldred was operated on Monday morning at the Morris hospital for appendicitis by Dr. H. M. Ferguson and Dr. Roscoe Whitman. He has had several attacks of the disease.

G. W. Elerding, of Stevensville, Montana, the Bitter Root Valley, is here for a week's visit. He came to Illinois to attend to business matters. Will and his family are well and doing nicely in the northwest.

Miss Mae McCanna and Patrick Collins were married in Joliet Tuesday and will go to Montana on March first to make their home on Mr. Collins' ranch. The bride is a former Morris girl who has many friends here.

Star Lodge, I. O. O. F., entertained about 300 guests last Saturday evening, many being present from adjoining towns. Fourteen candidates were initiated by the degree team of the Joliet lodge. Following the degree work a banquet was served.

Anna Conklin has filed suit for divorce, through her attorney, George Bedford, against her husband, George C. Conklin. The bill alleges that the couple were married in Ottawa, Sept. 14, 1910, that the husband had failed to provide the necessities of life for herself and children since May 4, 1913. She asks the court to restore her maiden name, Anna Peterson.

Mr. and Mrs. W. V. B. Read celebrated their fiftieth wedding anniversary here on Sunday. They were married fifty years ago at Springboro, Pa., while Mr. Read was home on a furlough from the Civil War. About six years after the close of the war Mr. and Mrs. Read came to Illinois, afterwards living in Missouri and North Dakota. About three years ago they came to Morris and have lived here since. Many friends called during the day to extend congratulations and many gifts were presented.

Miss Ella A. Peterson was united in marriage Saturday evening at her home on East Washington street, to Edward M. Pegeau, of Rockford. The ceremony was performed at 6:30 o'clock by Rev. J. H. McArthur, of the Presbyterian Church, the ring service being used. Only the immediate family was present. Following the ceremony a wedding supper was served and Mr. and Mrs. Pegeau left for a few days' stay in Chicago. From there they will go to Rockford, where Mr. Pegeau has been located for some time and is employed as an electrical engineer. He made his home in Grundy county at one time, leaving here about eight years ago. The bride is the second daughter of Mr. and Mrs. P. B. Peterson. She has always made her home in Morris and is a worthy young woman.

Miss Maude I. Dibble and George W. Blair were united in marriage Wednesday afternoon, the ceremony being performed at the home of the bride's parents, by Rev. J. H. McArthur, of the Presbyterian Church. Only the immediate relatives of the young couple were present. The bride wore a wedding dress of blue crepe meteor trimmed with shadow lace and her traveling dress was a tailored suit of blue maitese. Immediately after the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Blair left for a wedding trip and on their return will go to housekeeping on one of the Hoge farms in Erienna township. The bride is the oldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Dibble. She is a graduate of the Morris high school with the class of 1909 and since completing the course has been engaged as a teacher until the past year which she spent at home. The groom is the only son of Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Blair, of Saratoga township and is a prosperous young farmer.

FROM THE COUNTY.

At Sulphur Springs, this county, was organized a Gleaners Arbor with 123 members. This is one of the largest arbors in the state.

The K. of P. lodge of Braceville celebrated the golden jubilee anniversary last week Thursday evening by entertaining a large crowd at the opera house there. A program was rendered, a banquet served, followed by dancing.

Owing to a change in the new primary law, requiring candidates to file their petitions with the village clerk, 20 days before the primary, instead of 15 as under the old law, the various parties here failed to do this and so the primary will have to go by default.

The new Marseilles Congregational Church, one of the most complete and beautiful places of worship in this part of the state, was dedicated Sunday with impressive services, a remarkable thing being that on the day of its dedication all of the amount needed to pay for the erection of the edifice had been pledged.
