

GRUNDY COUNTY

FROM MORRIS

FARMERS' INSTITUTE CLOSES—DR. SMITH LAID TO REST—DR. FERGUSON RECEIVES CONTRACT FOR PROFESSIONAL SERVICES TWO MORRIS YOUTHS HAVE NARROW ESCAPE.

Dr. H. M. Ferguson has been given the contract for doctoring the poor at Morris for $100 a year.

Mrs. Dennis Sattler, Sr., who has been ill some time, is improving at the home of her daughter, Mrs. P. K. Eting.

Russell O. Hanson, a Morris youth, was the only representative of Grundy county to pass the State Bar examination held at Ottawa Saturday.

The Grundy County Farmers Institute closed Saturday afternoon after one of the most successful and largest attendance in the history of the organization.

Mrs. Hector Olson was granted a mothers pension of $15 per month Thursday in the county court. She has nine children, six of whom are home dependent.

The board awarded the fire department the sum of $50 for the carpet they had worn out while the office of the county clerk was in the firemen's room during the rebuilding.

Geo. W. Bartlett, of Chicago, attended the Grundy County Institute and exhibited some patent boxes for the safe transportation of butter and eggs from Morris to Chicago by parcel post. They are a new idea with the amount of postage printed on top and several farmers were very much interested in them.

Funeral services over the remains of the late Dr. A. D. Smith who died at the hospital Friday night were held Sunday afternoon at two o'clock at the home of his sister-in-law, Mrs. Walter Smith, corner Division and Main streets. Rev. J. H. McArthur, of the Presbyterian Church, officiated and vocal selections "Nearer My God to Thee" and "Face to Face" were rendered by Frank Gale accompanied on the piano by Ruth Harrison. There was a large attendance of relatives and friends and numerous floral tributes.

The Herald had in the county board of supervisor's room at the court house Thursday a specially made 1914 calendar showing cuts of each of the court houses that had been built and used by the county with some other information. County Agent Antone Veronda came in prepared to give his report. He had it rolled and wrapped in a cover almost identical with the tubes in which the calendars were contained. Some joker among the board members replaced his report with a calendar. When it came time for him to report he took his place before the board, cleared his throat, made a few preliminary remarks, undid his package, and then amid embarrassment said: "It appears that all I have to report is 365 days in this year."

What Has Fashion Up Her Sleeve?

The Answer is Being Revealed in

NEW SPRING SUITS

New, new, NEW, the not upon which they are constructed. The coats are short; the skirts much ornamented; there is an alluring new silhouette, a gay abandon to frills, flounces and furbelows. Not for many years has there been such diversity of ornamentation; not for many years has severity entirely forsaken the tailored suit, whether for home or going away.

The coats have high waisted postilion backs, ripples set flatly to a high waist line; panels that fall into a postilion effect beneath half-belts or buttons, soft falling reverses, sometimes wired standing collars of the Medici or Normandy type; sometimes flare cuffs, circular; sometimes modifying frills of lace. The bolero or cross-over fronts are in evidence.

We have hundreds of different models just received from New York that authoritatively show the correct styles at prices to suit everyone.
