Why Do 700,000 Women
Own Hoosier Cabinets?

When you know that 700,000 women use Hoosier Kitchen Cabinets three times every day, doesn't it suggest to you that you need this drudgery-saver in your kitchen.

Figure it out to yourself this way: Would they have bought these cabinets without convincing themselves that they have miles of steps and hours of time? Would so many women have bought them at all if users hadn't told others and thus influenced their friends to buy them.

Since this means that more Hoosier Cabinets have been sold than all the other 128 makes of cabinets combined, isn't it proof enough that the Hoosier is the best cabinet on the market?

When you see how the Hoosier groups four cupboards around a large metal table and places 400 articles at your fingers' ends so you can sit down at work—and rest while working—you'll want one of these "White Beauties" right away.

Come pick one out today.

Get Sugar in Other Ways.

It is significant that the nations who consume the most oil and light wines, all of which contain greater or less amounts of compounds of carbon and water, consume the least sugar per capita. The natives of Italy, Greece and Turkey, for example, consume annually but one-twelfth of the amount of sugar per capita that is consumed by the natives of Great Britain.—American Food Journal.

The city of Rockford rejected an ordinance licensing the sale of cigarettes by a 10 to 5 vote.

Please Vote For My Three Boys!

The following conversation occurred in Dwight. One lady said: "Are you going to vote against the saloon?" And the other replied, "No, I haven't any boys so I am not going to vote." "Well," said the first lady, "I have no vote and I have three boys, won't you please go and vote for my three boys?" And the other lady replied: "I will." The matter of voting is not a trifling pleasure, it is a matter of solemn duty.—Adv.

Primary Election Notice.

A primary election will be held at the Town House in the Village of Dwight, Tuesday, March 10, 1914, for the purpose of making nominations for three members of the Board of Trustees of the Village of Dwight for a two year term, and one Village Clerk of the Village of Dwight for a two year term.

Polls open at 6 o'clock A. M. and close at 5 o'clock P. M.

A. I. GRAVES,
Village Clerk.

There's a Middle Ground.

We blame equally him who is too proud to place a proper value on his own merit, and him who prizes too highly his spurious worth.—Goethe.

"I Am Neutral."

There is no such thing as neutrality where an issue of right and wrong are concerned. Not to use your influence and vote for the right, is to use it for the wrong. It was the world's greatest Teacher who said "He that is not for me is against me." Will you be content to sit idly by and see a struggle of such vast consequences going on and never lift a hand to help. Would you be neutral if you saw a boy drowning?—Adv.

"Mrs. Briggs of the Poultry Yard."

The high school Juniors will give their class play, "Mrs. Briggs of the Poultry Yard," Friday evening, March 13, at the Opera House. The play is an amusing but wholesome three act domestic comedy. The class has been rehearsing for the last six weeks under the direction of Miss Sendenburgh, the English teacher. All the thirteen members of the class have parts in the play. The leading part, that of the humorous, lovable woman of business, Mrs. Briggs, is exceptionally well taken by Blanch Reeb. Other characters are:
Alvira, her daughter... Esther Knudsen
Melissa, her daughter... Hazel Ely Betsy
Deborah Hoffman
Jimmy, her obstreperous son... Julius Epstein
Ralph, her adopted son... Clarence Chubb
Silas Green, "near relative"... Randall Kime
Sally Green, his cranky sister... Ruth Peterson
Mr. Lee, a wealthy neighbor... Frank Grush
Virginia Lee, his daughter... Margaret Diefenbach
Daisy Thornton, Virginia's friend... Cecelia Gels
Mrs. O'Connor, "who has a horror of the widdy's goat"... Viola Pierce
Mandy Bates, who stutters... Mildred Johnson
Remember the date, March 13. Reserved seats, 25c.

Pope Leo XIII.

This venerable Pope of Rome said: "Let pastors do their best to drive the plague of intemperance from the fold of Christ by assiduous preaching and exhortation, and to shine before all as models of abstinence, that so many calamities with which this vice threatens both Church and State may by their strenuous endeavors be averted." Letter to Archbishop Ireland, March 27, 1887.—Adv.

Need More Room for Scholars.

The Board of Education built a new two room school on the West side in the year 1910-11. At this time there was no very great need for a building on the west side, but in order to hold the land, which was donated for school purposes, the board was compelled to build a building of some kind. At that time there were two vacant rooms in the east side building, so all the children could easily have been handled over there.

This new building was built as a two room building, but only one of the rooms was finished. The next fall it became necessary to finish the other room and use it as a second grade room. Although, at the time of erecting this building, there seemed to be no danger of ever needing to add on to this building, the Board had it so planned that two more rooms can very easily be added to the rear, without interfering with the arrangement or appearance of it. At present the grades, and especially the lower grades are very crowded. It would be very advantageous to all concerned to have two more rooms on the west side, for the third and fourth grades. This would be helpful in many ways. It would keep many of the smaller children from crossing the tracks, before they are in the fifth grade, and would give room for the growing population of Dwight. Each school census shows quite an increase in the younger children, and room must be made for them.

The Mayor of Rockford.

Rockford is the largest dry city in wet territory in the United States. It also has the lowest tax rate of any city in its class in the state. Don't forget that. Its Mayor, Mr. Bennett, knows more about it than any other man in the United States, and he will be glad to answer any questions that you may ask him about it on Saturday, March 21st. If you have been talking about Rockford be courageous enough to come. It will put you in a bad light before your friends if you don't.—Adv.

Notice of Color for Ballots.

Our Attitude Toward the Saloonkeeper.

We bear no malice toward those engaged in the liquor business, but we hate the traffic. Father Joseph McNamee, Pastor of the Catholic Church at Peotone, Ill., expresses our sentiments when he says "Saloon keepers should not consider us their enemies. We hate their business, as we are Christian people, but we are bound to love themselves, their children and their future prosperity. They before all others should vote against it, because to them, in the end, it does the most harm."—Adv.

AROUND ABOUT

Casmir Wekus, a 3-year-old boy of Springfield, died Saturday evening after drinking a pint of whisky which he had found.

The University high school of Bloomington won the district high school basketball tournament at Bloomington Saturday.

Relics worth $7,000, including a Bible more than 650 years of age, were destroyed by fire which burned the home of G. L. Vance, of Joliet.

Ottawa has voted to raise the dram shop licenses to $1,000, and to limit the number to one saloon to 400 people, also to do away with the free lunch counters.

Samuel Hodel, a bachelor farmer of near Minler, committed suicide Sunday by swallowing strychnine. He was despondent over the death of a brother recently by drowning.

Spring is surely here, according to Robert Connors who lives at Dixon. He claims to have seen sixteen robins in that city. The flock apparently had just come up from the southland.

Fred W. Mennerich, of Decatur, was blown to pieces Sunday morning by an infernal machine which was sent to him through the mail. The explosion blew one side of the house entirely away.

Fred Anschicks, of Ottawa, has just completed a motor sled. He tried it out Wednesday on the canal and it is said it will make a speed of fifty miles per hour. It is run by a motorcycle engine.

Women of Urbana voted for the first time Saturday. The proposition was to issue bonds for a library. It carried by a large majority. The women voters numbered 239, and only 94 voted "no."

The First Christian Church of Mason City, which cost $30,000, was dedicated Sunday. Many clergymen and laymen from central Illinois attended. The Rev. George L. Snively, of Lewiston, delivered the dedicatory sermon.

The funeral services of the late John Sebastian, former third vice president of the C. R. I. & P. Ry., were held Tuesday at Evanston. Mr. Sebastian was 65 years old and had been in the railroad business for nearly half a century.

Mrs. Mary Manusch, of 380 Rural street, Aurora, was burned in a fire which partly destroyed her home Sunday. The flesh of her entire body was burned to a crisp, and she died at St. Charles Hospital. City firemen carried the woman out of the burning house. She had poured kerosene into a cook stove.

Mrs. Rebecca H. Koffman, of Oregon, Ill., has appealed to the members of the Aurora and other women's clubs of Illinois to aid in financing a project of purchasing the famous pine forest of Ogle county, the last tract of timber of this character in Illinois.

Mrs. Catherine Trahy, sixty years old, a widow, who has resided for years in a little home near the Burlington railroad tracks in Aurora, was found dead in bed Thursday. She had been asphyxiated with coal gas. Friends of the dead woman are searching for $3,000 which was paid to her four weeks ago by the Burlington railroad for her home.

William Feeney, twenty year old stepson of John Hess, a wealthy Will county farmer, picked up a can which he believed to contain kerosene and poured it into a stove. The can contained gasoline and in the explosion which followed the young man was so badly burned that he died later in a Joliet hospital.

Miss Anne Forsyth, Aurora's police-woman, is planning a busy campaign for the coming spring and summer. She will start a vigorous crusade against flirting in Aurora streets. Miss Forsyth will be on the downtown streets every night after the arrival of mild weather. It is too cold now for the "downtown parade," but as soon as warmer weather comes the flirts will be out, she asserts.

After working for several weeks on the books of the Plainfield private bank closed since the president, John Everts, disappeared, Trustee Alfred Corbin said that it would probably pay about ten cents on the dollar. The deposits were over $90,000.
