He had been sick for several months with complications due to old age. Mr. Hendrickson's wife died a number of years ago and he is survived by three sons and three daughters.

Martin Cornale, a resident of South Wilmington since it became a town, died at his home on Rice street Monday morning about 3 o'clock. Death was due to complications, superinduced by an attack of the grip. This death brings sorrow to everyone in South Wilmington for Martin Cornale was a steady and industrious citizen and well liked by all.

Drs. Graham and Walsh were hurriedly summoned about five o'clock Thursday afternoon to attend Vernon

Wallace who lives on the Herbert Vanderpool farm in Norman township with his mother and sister, about nine miles south of Morris. Mr. Wallace was attending to the running of a four horse power gasoline engine when he reached to push the six inch belt over on the loose pulley. The bottom of his overcoat was caught in the belt before he could throw it off and he was pulled chest down into the wheel. The strain on the belt when he reached the wheel was such that it snapped in two and this was all that saved Mr. Wallace from more terrible injuries or possibly death. His sister was standing near and pulled him from the wheel, and assisted him to the house. The physicians found that his right ankle and two ribs were broken. He is suffering considerable but is doing as well as can be expected.

The death of the beloved pastor, Rev. J. P. Green, of Kinsman, was a severe shock to his parishioners, as he was ill but a few days, suffering from liver trouble. He was taken to St. Joseph's Hospital at Streator Thursday and all that medical skill and good nursing could be done was but of no avail and he passed away at 12 o'clock Thursday night. His remains were brought to Kinsman on the 2:30 train Friday afternoon and were taken to his residence and on Sunday after mass he was taken to the Sacred Heart Church, where he had been pastor for so many years and his body was left in the church for the last twenty-four hours before being taken to Chicago. Rev. Green was born and educated in Ireland but was ordained a priest in this country and the first four years of his priesthood he was assistant priest at St. James parish in Chicago; he was then removed to St. Mary's parish at Joliet, where he also remained four years, and twenty-two years ago this May he came to our little town and has resided with us since that time and he proved a very true friend and adviser to all and will be greatly missed by the congregation. He leaves three sisters and one brother to mourn his loss, all of whom reside in Chicago, and all attended his funeral here on Monday morning. High mass was celebrated at 10:30 with Archbishop Quigley in charge, being assisted by Fathers Dunne and Fitzgibbons, of Chicago, and Hauser, of Seneca, and an eloquent sermon was preached by Rev. Father Conway. Thirty priests attended the funeral, those present were: Chancellor Hogan, Fathers Purcell, Callahan, Scanlon, J. P. Callahan, Goraher, Trainor, Coyne, Murray, McNamee, Zerby, Scanlon, Cryng and Kiley, of Chicago; Hackett, of Marseilles; Kearns, of Budd; O'Kelley and Dominick, of Streator; Wagner, O'Brien, Dwyer and Murray, of Joliet; R. A. O'Brien, Dawson, of Riverview, and Hemlock, of Leron.
