

Lakeside Rug Border

THE CROWNING TOUCH OF HOME BEAUTIFICATION THAT GOES STRAIGHT TO A WOMAN'S HEART THE INSTANT IT MEETS HER EYE.

Talk about love at first sight—why it's a case of complete infatuation at a glance when you show a woman Lakeside Rug Border. The moment you begin to unroll its beauties to her eye you'll see her face light up with pleasure and yearning, and then and there the sale is as good as made.

LAKESIDE RUG BORDER IS A PERFECT "DOUBLE" OF A GENUINE OAK FLOOR.

It's an exact replica—a "second edition"—an actual, bona-fide, face-to-face imprint of an elegant finished hardwood floor. It's not a mere hand-wrought copy—a mere commercial subterfuge, but a scientific, infallible, "mimeographed" impression of natural oak.

LAKESIDE RUG BORDER IS SO UNQUESTIONABLY—SO STUPENDOUSLY SUPERIOR TO ANY OTHER RUG FILLER ON THE MARKET THAT THERE'S ABSOLUTELY NO BASIS FOR COMPARISON.

The most infinitesimal grain markings of the original oak are "engraved" on Lakeside as accurately and realistically as the delicate touches of an artistic masterpiece are reproduced on the finest half-tone engraving. There's not the slightest blotch or patch—not the smallest unevenness of tone anywhere. The design of "Lakeside" shows the boards narrow, tight-fitting and close together—there are no glaring unsightly stripes between them like the cracks in an old-fashioned country side-walk.

And when it comes to color and tone and finish—when it comes to sheer, downright, aristocratic elegance, there's never been a rug border made that has even a "look-in" with "Lakeside." Why, to display a roll of Lakeside is just like showing the top "layer" of a genuine oak floor, color, tone, grain, finish and all.

LAKESIDE RUG BORDER DOES NOT HAVE TO BE TACKED DOWN.

Simply cut it, lay it and the job's done—no fastening of any kind required. There's no warping or buckling—no kinking—no curling up at the edges.

We believe you would want some of this border on your floors if you knew more about it. Perhaps you have seen it on your neighbors floor and did not know that it was not oak flooring. If you will call at The Furniture Store you may see it. We cordially invite you to inspect our full line of floor coverings, we are showing a beautiful assortment.

No special date has been arranged for the wedding, but it is expected in the near future.

"The Goring Bull"

About fifty people assembled at the Dorman school house, four miles south-east of Dwight, Thursday evening to hear the lecture given by George H. McClung, and a more attentive audience would be hard to find.

He likened the liquor traffic to a Goring Bull, and pictured most vividly and convincingly the duty and responsibility resting on the voters of this community regarding the cleaning up of this township by voting out the licensed saloons. The arguments were so clear, clean and practical that the ground was covered regardless of the angle the listeners might have viewed the question, and to quote one member of the audience who has been privileged to attend all the meetings held by the Anti-Saloon Forces in the township this season:

"It was the best explanation of actual conditions and of the responsibility of the voter I have ever heard, and the most convincing argument for my casting my ballot against the saloon, unless I am willing to be directly responsible for the crime, insanity and general pauperism resulting from the saloons' existence."

Household Science Club.

A regular meeting of the Household Science Club will be held Wednesday afternoon, March 25, at two p. m. at Odd Fellows Hall. There is no charge for attendance at these meetings, and all ladies are welcome to come and hear these interesting sessions.

The Big Meeting To-night.

JUNIOR PLAY.

Junior Class of High School Give Successful Play in Opera House.

Each year the Junior Class of the Dwight High School give their class play before the public, and much interest is manifested in these performances by the exception of Dwight. This year was no exception to the rule and a crowded house greeted the youthful thespians, and many had to be turned away from the opera house on account of lack of room.

The play was given Friday evening of last week and the title was "Mrs. Briggs of the Poultry Yard." It was in three acts and was a very amusing little performance, which the audience enjoyed and heartily applauded.

The part of Mrs. Briggs was very well taken by Miss Blanche Reeb and indeed every role was exceptionally well played by our young students.

Julius Epstein, who was cast for the part of "Jimmy," was taken ill the day of the entertainment, and at the last moment Miss Sendenburgh had to take the part, which she did very well.

Following is the cast of characters:
 Mrs. Briggs.....Blanche Reeb
 Alvira, her daughter.....Esther Knudsen
 Melissa, her daughter.....Hazel Ely
 Betsy, her daughter.....Deborah Hoffman
 Jimmy, her obstreperous son.....Julius Epstein
 Ralph, her adopted son.....Clarence Chubb
 Silas Green, "near relative".....Randall Kime
 Sally Green, his cranky sister.....Ruth Peterson
 Mr. Lee, a wealthy neighbor.....Frank Grush
 Virginia Lee, his daughter.....Margaret Diefenbach
 Daisy Thornton, Virginia's friend.....Cecelia Gels
 Mrs. O'Connor, "who has a horror of the widdy's goat".....Viola Pierce
 Mandy Bates, who stutters.....Mildred Johnston
 The entertainment was under the direct supervision of Miss Sendenburgh, the teacher of English in the High School, on whose thorough training much of the success of the play depends.

Illegal Voting.

It is a very serious offense to vote illegally in Illinois. Any one who aids another to vote illegally may be fined $1,000 and sent to jail for one year. Whoever swears that a non-resident is a legal voter is also guilty of perjury. Better let somebody else swear them in! The same penalty applies to those who try by any means to prevent any legal voter from voting.—Adv.

Mrs. Ella Stewart Coming.

"Woe unto him that giveth his neighbor drink" applies to three classes of people.

1. To the man who treats his friend, or to the woman who provides intoxicating drink in social affairs, or one who gives the drink to another for beverage purposes.

2. The man or woman who votes for the saloon or any institution which places liquor before the people of a community.

3. The man or woman who by neglecting to vote allows liquor to be made accessible to the public. The question is not "Will men drink?" The question is "Will you assume the responsibility for their drinking?"—Adv.

—THE— UNITED STATES CREAM SEPARATOR

THE WORLD'S RECORD SEPARATOR FOR CLOSE SKIMMING in 50 consecutive runs during a period of 30 days and on milk from 10 breeds.

THE NEW SANITARY LINER

Is easily removed, non-rusting and easy to wash.

Other separators, on account of defective bowl constructions become insatiable because milk, in greater or lesser quantity, comes in contact with, and quickly rusts, cast iron and steel. The Liner, exclusively a U. S. feature, absolutely prevents milk contact with the iron bowl chamber and possible leakage into the gears.

This great improvement, following that of the famous non-rusting nickel silver rusting device, with surface as non-adhesive as polished ivory or glass, completes the most sanitary separator equipment in existence.

The Mechanical Washer makes cleaning still easier and most complete.
