

GRUNDY COUNTY

FROM MORRIS

DEATH OF MRS. MARY COLLINS—CLARENCE OLSEN SURPRISED—ROBERT CONDON SENT TO MONTANA—MAYOR STOPS CHANCE GAMES—BONNELL SELLS OUT POOL ROOM.

Miss Alma Walker is the first woman in the history of Morris to receive the nomination for town clerk. She was nominated by the Progressive party.

William Lewis, of the Herald, whose household goods were destroyed by fire on the way to Morris two weeks ago, has been satisfactorily settled with for the loss by the St. Paul railroad.

Mrs. Mary Collins died Sunday afternoon at her home on North street after an illness of many years. The deceased was 81 years of age. Burial took place in Aux Sable township, Rev. Schneider officiating.

Word received from Judge and Mrs. G. W. Huston who with a party are sight-seeing in Texas, report their arrival at San Antonio and enjoying their trip immensely. The weather is disagreeable, a drizzling rain falling.

S. A. Holtzhauser from Wittenberg, Saxony in Germany, spoke on "Martin Luther" Monday night at the Bethlehem Lutheran Church. The large audience enjoyed the talk very much and Mr. Holtzhauser was pleased that he could be here to make the speech.

The name of Mrs. T. G. Gatlin who was nominated for alderman in the first ward on the Democratic ticket, because of her name being written in at the primaries, has filed her notice of withdrawal with the city clerk and this leaves A. F. Mallory on the Republican ticket, the only candidate in that ward, thus far.

The remains of the baby son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Croft which was born in Englewood Monday were brought to Morris at 10:40 Tuesday morning over the Rock Island and taken to Evergreen cemetery for burial. Rev. Geyer officiated at the grave. Mr. and Mrs. Croft reside on the Dr. Harrison farm in Norman township.

Misses Erma and Freda Kindelspire gave a shower Saturday night in honor of their cousin, Miss Mabel Osmond, who was married Wednesday to Clarence Olson. The shower was miscellaneous and she received a great many gifts. Lunch was served at the conclusion of the evening, which was spent in playing games, and good music was furnished.

W. T. Cockbill has materially changed the interior of his restaurant and store room. The partition between the two rooms has been moved to the rear, throwing the store and dining room into one. At the rear of the partition a small passage makes a place for the wash and cloak room. The change gives much more light and improves the appearance.

George Hill, an old time coal miner in east Morris some 24 years ago and well known to many of our older citizens, died in Sand Coulee, Mont., two weeks ago. He broke a leg on Christmas day and was never able to be out since. His wife, it will be remembered, was killed on the Rock Island by the Peru accommodation and Mr. Hill left for Sand Coulee a short time after.

Robert Condon, son of Mr. and Mrs. Con Condon, of Morris, is the district vice president of the United Mine Workers of America and has been called to Billings, Mont., to take charge of the office of secretary and treasurer of the Union there. That officer had embezzled $3500 of the union's money and was placed under arrest. Mr. Condon has been in Montana seven years.

That the automobile business in Morris and Grundy county has grown to considerable extent is evidenced by another garage in this city which has just been completed. It is owned by Paul Neilsen and erected on South Waupoose street, next to his blacksmith shop. The walls of the building are entirely of concrete blocks, which show skill in the making and workmanship in the erection of the walls. C. H. Black is the man who done the work and the handsome building is a credit to him. It is 60x65 feet.

Nearly all of the Democrats nominated on the town ticket in Morris Monday night will withdraw from the field. Thomas Owens, for supervisor; Mace Canady for assessor; Bart Pattison for constable and I. H. McKeen for justice of the peace have already expressed their intentions and asked for the blanks from the town clerk. Peter Campbell for collector has not yet announced he would withdraw, but has the matter under consideration.

According to a notice the mayor will stop the use of punch boards, raffle cards or other games of chance which have become very numerous in Morris of late. Complaint has been made that certain boys sent down town to make purchases for the home have spent the money on these games of chance. They are in ice cream parlors, fruit stores, cigar stores and saloons. The mayor gives all those who have them an opportunity to get rid of them before April 6.

B. F. Bonnell completed a deal at 5 p. m. Tuesday that had been pending since Saturday whereby he sells his pool hall and confectionery business on Jefferson street to B. E. Watkins, of Chicago. The new proprietor took possession Tuesday night. Bonnell intends to remain in Morris until after the spring election after which he probably will spend the summer on his farm in Indiana retaining his residence in Morris for the present if not permanently. The new man has been engaged in the restaurant business for the past twenty years. He comes expecting to make no material changes in the local place and has arranged to retain Ed Peacock in his present position as cashier.

FROM THE COUNTY.

Braceville Blues opened the soccer season at Braceville Sunday by defeating the Coal City team 1 to 0.

Rev. Father Burns, of Chicago, has been appointed pastor of the Sacred Heart Church at Kinsman, to fill the place vacated by the late Father Green.

John Sadler passed away at the home of his son, Harry Sadler, at Waupoose, Wednesday night, death being due to heart failure. Burial took place in Verona.

There will be regular preaching at the Dorman school house Sunday evening at 7:30 p. m. Theme, "Could Christ Save Himself." Come and worship with us. John M. Jensen, pastor.

The Rev. Francis C. Kelly, President of Catholic Church Extension, will preach at St. Patrick's Church Sunday evening, March 29. Father Burke, of Chenoa, the following Sunday evening.

James Thurston, one of Coal City's most prominent residents, died Monday morning at 2:30 o'clock. The cause of Mr. Thurston's death was asthma. Deceased was 75 years old. Burial was made in Braceville cemetery.

Ray Holderman is now the sole owner of the Miller silver trophy offered for Grundy amateur marksmen by winning it for the third time at the match held Sunday afternoon. Mr. Holderman had a handicap of six yards over the others. The cup had to be won three times before ownership could be claimed.

John M. Benson, of Waupoose, received Wednesday morning a hundred pound crate of "Washington Navel and Malta Blood" oranges from his cousin in Ontario, California. He states that a hot north wind right from the desert has been blowing for twenty-four hours and is making the new growth and buds look wilted and drying up things considerably.

The funeral of the late Patrick McCambridge, who died in Kinsman Saturday, was held Monday morning at 10 o'clock in the Sacred Heart Church in that village. Rev. Father John Burns, of Chicago, the new priest, officiated. There was a very large attendance and burial took place in Calvary cemetery in Seneca beside a daughter who had passed away years ago.

The Republicans of Goose Lake township met in caucus Tuesday afternoon at the town house where they selected the party nominees for the town election. Nearly a full vote of the township was out including nineteen women voters. The results follow: Supervisor, C. E. Anderson; town clerk, Claude Rogers; highway commissioner, Elmer Bargo; assessor, John Small.

Ed. Towsley is the first Grundy county farmer to sow oats. He made the start Tuesday at his home in Nettle Creek township. Mr. Towsley believes that as March came in like a lion it will go out according to her tradition and that spring will really be here to stay. Then too the arrival of the blue jays and other harbingers of spring add to the belief that the cold weather is over and that the oats sowed now will flourish well.

The Fact Remains

No amount of misrepresentation by the peddlers of alum baking powders, no juggling with chemicals, or pretended analysis, or cooked-up certificates, or falsehoods of any kind, can change the fact that

Royal Baking Powder has been found by the official examinations to be of the highest leavening efficiency, free from alum, and of absolute purity and wholesomeness.

Royal Baking Powder is indispensable for making finest and most economical food.

The Festival of Spring Fashions at HEENAN'S has certainly created a furore among the women of Streator. Never before have the women of this vicinity seen such a display of Coats, Suits, Millinery and Gowns in Streator or in any other town outside of the larger cities. And very few of the Style Shows in the larger cities outshine ours, either for beautiful window displays, store decorations or garments shown.

We have nine of the largest display windows in this section of the country and they certainly are beautifully decorated. It is worth a thirty mile trip to see our window decorations alone without mentioning the numerous other attractions we are offering you. The STYLE SHOW closes Saturday night.

We refund fare one way on a $10 purchase, both ways on a $20 purchase
