

LIVINGSTON COUNTY

FROM PONTIAC

DISTRIBUTION OF SCHOOL FUNDS—Z. T. TRUMBO ACCEPTS NEW POSITION—DR. NATE DELIVERS LECTURE—POSTOFFICE EXAMINATIONS HELD—REFORMATORY NOTES.

Night Policeman Garret arrested Samuel Revari and Thos. Murphy Saturday night on suspicion of stealing copper bands from the B. P. & J. Ry. Co. Both men are locked up.

The total number of inmates at the reformatory last Saturday was 583. White 482 and colored 101. Three boys were paroled during the week, one received to begin his sentence and one returned for violating his parole.

Orville Tuttle the well-known chicken fancier of Pontiac, made a shipment of two settings of eggs from his well known strain of Plymouth chickens to parties in Pittsburg, Pa. This indicates that the reputation of Mr. Tuttle's chickens are becoming widespread.

Dr. Joseph Nate, of Bloomington, secretary of the forward movement of the Methodist Episcopal Church, occupied the pulpit of that church here Sunday. Dr. Nate spoke along the lines of the educational movement now receiving considerable attention among the churches of Illinois.

Henry A. Tate, who is secretary of the local government civil service examination board, held an examination at the court house Saturday afternoon for postmasters for fourth class post-offices. Applicants for the offices at Saunemin and Strawn, six in all, were present and took the examination.

Captain Fred Dewey, in command of Company F, third regiment Illinois National Guard of Pontiac, is keeping in close touch with the Mexican situation and also with the commanding officers of the regiment so as to be in readiness should the National Guard of the state be called upon in the Mexican situation.

The Woman's Christian Temperance Union met with Miss Verry Saturday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Pudry. The topic "Christianity That Means Something" was in charge of Mrs. George Evans assisted by Mrs. Mary Russell, Mrs. Balmer, and Rev. B. W. Tate. Several candidates for city offices were present and gave short talks, at the close of the meeting refreshments were served.

The distribution of funds for school purposes by County Superintendent Herbert has taken place, and Treasurer Frank L. Smith, of Dwight, has received $1488.23. This fund is made up from the state tax, interest on the state school fund, and certain fines imposed by the state's attorney and justices of the peace. Pontiac is first with $3,123.49; Dwight second, with Fairbury next with $1430.51.

Wednesday afternoon, before Judge P. A. Gibbons in the county court, a jury found that Mary Adams was of feeble and unsound mind and unable to look after her business interests and estate. Judge P. A. Gibbons, in accordance with the finding, appointed Judge R. R. Wallace, of this city, her conservator under a bond of $2,500. Mary Adams is an inmate of an old folks' home in Peoria at present.

Z. T. Trumbo is now assistant superintendent of the Illinois State Reformatory here, the appointment having been made at the regular meeting of the board of managers last week. Mr. Trumbo has practically filled the position of assistant superintendent at the institution since Captain M. H. Luke left last fall. He has met with excellent results as such officer and has been rewarded by being appointed to the position.

The remains of John Folks, who died in Chicago last Wednesday, were brought to Pontiac Sunday night and funeral services held Monday. A short service was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Floyd, 1001 North Oak street, where the body was taken from the train following which a service was held at Grace Episcopal Church. Both services were conducted by Rev. George E. Young. Interment was in South Side cemetery.

FROM THE COUNTY.

Henry Cleary, who lives near Nevada, had the misfortune to lose six horses Sunday evening. The horses were on the railroad track when a freight train came along and killed all six. Mr. Cleary's loss is estimated at $1800.

Mrs. Mary Hartman, of Strawn, who some time ago underwent a serious operation at Brokaw Hospital at Bloomington, was able to return to her home Saturday. While she has not entirely recovered from her operation she is making rapid gains toward complete recovery.

Hugh Phillips, who lives at Fairbury, was run over by a horse and buggy, driven by Mrs. Ricketts Saturday afternoon and was fortunate in escaping serious injury. Mr. Phillips was riding his motorcycle which was damaged to some extent while he was scarcely hurt at all.

The Odd Fellows at Emington are making arrangements to put up a large two story brick building in the near future. The first floor will be used as a public hall and the second floor as a lodge hall; it will be the home of Emington lodge No. 944, I. O. O. F. The lodge has a membership of about sixty-five at present. The new building will be a great addition to the town and something that has been needed.

During the windstorm Saturday, machinery buildings, built out of cement blocks and with tin roofing on the John and Fred Wessells farms west of Fairbury, collapsed, doing considerable damage to the machinery stored in the buildings, aside from the damage done to the buildings themselves. The wind, which blew fiercely most all day did considerable damage otherwise to small structures, aside from making outdoor travel very disagreeable.

Peter Farley met with a very serious accident Wednesday night going home from the show, the bolt in the shaft broke and which threw him out and cut him badly in the face but is doing nicely now.

Beware of Ointments for Catarrh that Contain Mercury, as mercury will surely destroy the sense of smell and completely derange the whole system when entering it through the mucous surfaces. Such articles should never be used except on prescriptions from reputable physicians, as the damage they will do is ten fold to the good you can possibly derive from them. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, O., contains no mercury, and is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. In buying Hall's Catarrh Cure be sure you get the genuine. It is taken internally and made in Toledo, Ohio, by F. J. Cheney & Co. Testimonials free. Sold by Druggists, price 75c. Take Hall's Family Pills for constipation.—Adv.

Weis; trustees, for 1 year, Geo. Hulbert, Ed. Hamilton; for police magistrate, Bert Johnson. There were 64 women's votes cast and 83 men's votes cast, making a total of 147 votes.

NOBODY SPARED.

Kidney Troubles Attack Dwight Men and Women, Old and Young.

Kidney ills seize young and old. Often come with little warning. Children suffer in their early years—Can't control the kidney secretions. Girls are languid, nervous, suffer pain.

Women worry, can't do daily work. Men have lame and aching backs. If you have any form of kidney ills You must reach the cause—the kidneys.

Doan's Kidney Pills are for weak kidneys—The following testimony proves their worth:

Mrs. A. F. Alizond, 424 Schuyler Ave., Kankakee, Ill., says: "I am pleased to recommend Doan's Kidney Pills for the benefit they brought one of my family. This one had a lame and aching back and other kidney troubles. Doan's Kidney Pills brought very satisfactory results."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.—Adv. 20
