MRS. THEO. ZINGREBE DEAD.

Passes Away at Ottawa After Illness of Several Months at that Place.

After an illness of several months' duration, Mrs. Theo. Zingrebe passed away at Ottawa, Ill., last Monday morning, at which place she had been receiving treatment for some time in the hopes of being permanently cured.

Mrs. Sarah Zingrebe (nee Hoffman) was born in Goodfarm township, Grundy county, April 29, 1867, and departed this life in triumph of Christian faith April 20, 1914, at the age of 47, lacking nine days. At the district school in the vicinity of the old homestead she learned the lessons which prepared her for the ordinary duties of life. From early youth she attended Sunday School; was one of the most loved and best thought of scholars. At the age of 17 she made a decision for the Christian life, and immediately united with the United Evangelical Church. In her church affiliation she was a devoted, loyal and faithful member. She was especially talented for music, and it was her joy to devote this gift to the service of God. For many years she was very active in the church, serving as organist or employing her beautiful soprano voice in song. In 1896 she was united in marriage to Theo. Zingrebe, locating a short time after on a farm near Mazon, Ill., where they resided for a number of years. The wedded life was a happy one. This union was blessed with three children, two sons, Allen and Ray, and one little daughter, Ruth, all of whom survive her. In 1907 it was noticeable that our sister's health was gradually falling, and her husband decided to retire from the farm, in order to take his afflicted wife to a more congenial climate. They remained in New Mexico, seven months, and our sister returned to Illinois seemingly in the enjoyment of much better health. They made their home in Dwight, and have been living here since that time.

During last fall and winter, Mrs. Zingrebe had suffered with another attack of severe illness which finally developed into pulmonary trouble so they decided to place her under special treatment of physicians at Ottawa, Ill. Everything that human skill could suggest was done, to save the precious life, but all in vain, and she went home Monday morning as the sun was approaching its zenith. Her beautiful spirit has gone upon high. Heaven is holding that which is near and dear to us. She has laid down the heavy cross and has taken up the crown brilliant with shining stars. There is not only a lonely place in the home which she graced in such queenly fashion as wife and mother, but there is a lonely place in our church since she went to heaven. She leaves to mourn her loss husband, three children, three brothers, George, Martin and Will, of Goodfarm, Ill.; three sisters, Mrs. Kate Hornberger, Mrs. Margaret Meyer, Mrs. Emma Roeder, of Dwight, besides other relatives and a host of friends.

Her oldest brother, Leonard, preceded her to the home above two years ago.

Funeral services were held Wednesday afternoon, at two o'clock, at the Evangelical Church, Rev. H. F. Ebert conducting the service. A quartette composed of Mrs. T. J. Hayes, Mrs. L. Adams, Messrs. A. I. Graves and I. H. Baker furnished the music. The body was then taken to Goodfarm cemetery for burial.

Card of Thanks.

We hereby desire to express our heartfelt thanks and deepest gratitude to the friends, churches and societies for their tender sympathies and the many beautiful floral pieces presented us during the long illness and sad death of our beloved wife and mother. We also extend our thanks to those who sang at the funeral.

THEODORE ZINGREBE AND FAMILY.

Margaret Buchanan Thompson.

Margaret Buchanan, daughter of Washington and Mary Buchanan, was born near Barnesville, Ohio. At the age of sixteen she became a member of the United Presbyterian Church at Fairview, Ohio, and remained a member of that organization until after her marriage, when she moved to Illinois and united with the Presbyterian Church. Since her residence in Dwight she has been connected with the First Congregational Church.

Mrs. Thompson was essentially a home woman and a home maker. To her father and mother and younger brothers and sisters she was a large factor in the parental home life, so much so that one of the sisters said when looking at her after she had passed away, "Father thought he was ruined when she left home." Later in her own home she was the devoted, unselfish and revered mother and friend. Hospitality was one of the ruling characteristics of her home, and to a large circle of friends she extended with her family a generous and loving welcome.

The funeral was held Sunday afternoon at two o'clock at the late home of Mrs. Thompson, Rev. F. F. Farrington, pastor of the Congregational Church officiating. Mrs. Mary Thompson McGregor, of Pontiac, sang two beautiful selections. The body was then taken to McDowell cemetery for interment.

Rev. Bowman, professor in the Naperville Evangelical College, gave a very interesting sermon and lecture last Sunday morning and evening at the Evangelical Church. Rev. Bowman has traveled extensively in the old world and in his lecture he told of his experiences and observances while in India, Greece and China. The remaining indebtedness on the new church in our little city, was cleaned up at this time, and the handsome building now stands unencumbered, owing to the indefatigable efforts of the pastor, Rev. H. F. Ebert.

School Election.

Election for President and two members of the Board of Education was held last Saturday at the Town House. There was only one ticket in the field, so not many votes were cast. The men elected on the ticket are as follows:

President, 1 year, R. W. Boston.
Jas. E. Seabert, and Geo. S. Baker, members of the Board for three years.

Swat the Fly.

Ninety per cent of house flies come from unclean stables. Cleveland, O., last year, was practically a flyless city. An inspection of that city's markets made last summer (1913), where quantities of meat and provisions were exposed, disclosed only two flies, while out of five hundred or more groceries, only a few were found where flies were numerous. Thousands of householders found it possible to dispense with screens at doors and windows. This much to be desired state of affairs was brought about by the "Junior Sanitary Police," boys recruited from the sixth, seventh, and eighth grades of the city schools. Each school district was sectioned off, and each member of the force made responsible for one section. The district force was officered by a chief, an assistant chief, and four inspectors. The girls also had a part, some of them being made "sanitary aids." The principal of each school appointed the force for his district. From the beginning the work was under the leadership of Jean Dawson, professor of civic biology at the Normal School.

The war was waged against the winter fly, and the battle was at its height during March and April. When the campaign closed, May 15, 490,835 flies had been killed.

DWIGHT MILITARY BAND

The above is a fine picture of "Our Band." There is nothing more difficult to keep going in an up-to-date manner in any community than the Home Band. It ought to be the easiest for it brings pleasure and amusement. The Dwight Band has had its ups and downs, but through it all they have prospered, and now it is the best home band in this part of the country. Prof. Paul Rebbholz, of Earl Park, Indiana, is a splendid musician and leader. With the idea in view of having the Professor regularly, the Band Boys have decided to give a Band Concert and Dance May 6—Wednesday evening. The Band on that day will give free concerts from 12:30 to 1:00 at noon, on West Street, and from 7:30 to 8:30 p. m., on East Street and everybody is invited. In the evening at Mazon Hall the boys will give a dance. They have placed the tickets at $1.00, and the members of the band will call upon our people, and everyone should purchase to assist in this most worthy cause.—Adv.

HOUSEHOLD SCIENCE SOCIAL.

Pleasant Affair Held in Odd Fellows Hall Wednesday Evening.

The Household Science Club held a very pleasant social evening at Odd Fellows Hall Wednesday of this week, at which the members and their families and invited guests were present. All present spent a very enjoyable evening and hope such occasions will be frequent in the near future.

A nice program was rendered, Mrs. Elmer Jeffries as chairman, and every number was greatly enjoyed, and received much applause. Many of the numbers were humorous, and caused much laughter. The address of welcome was made by Mrs. E. A. Radcliff, the president of the Club, in which she greeted all those present at this, the first social gathering since the organization of the Club in January. She stated the Club was associated with the state organization, and is the Auxiliary to the Farmers Institute; she also said it stood for the betterment of economic conditions in the homes and for better health. The object and aim of the club is to assist in the promotion of any good cause that may help our little city or surrounding country. One of the main objects is to reduce the cost of living and to do the work with less labor and in less time.

Death of Mr. Mortensen.

Mr. Jens Mortensen was born in Denmark, September 6, 1842, and passed away April 14, 1914, following an illness of several years with a complication of diseases.

At the age of 27 years he came to this country and in 1876 was united in marriage to Miss Sarah Thompson. To this union were born six children, three girls and three boys.
