

IN every land and upon every sea great fortresses stand guard over the honor, wealth and progress of the nations.

Just as a nation's force of arms and character bring the respect and confidence of other countries, so does a man's strength of character and financial stability enhance the respect and faith of his fellow men in him.

Saving builds confidence and character.

This bank has grown because it has the faith and confidence of the people of this community. Grow with it by being one of its depositors.

Do your banking here where prompt, accurate and safe service enable us to render tangible banking assistance.
