

WITH the unknown on all sides—with only the trees for shelter, it was the unbounded faith of the Pilgrims in their ideals that gave them the sense of security, freedom and relief.

It is faith in ones self which makes every worthwhile accomplishment possible.

Saving is the Beginning of Faith.

It insures security and preparation for the present and future. To grown-ups it gives stability and greater incentive for further growth. To youths it builds purpose—strengthens character and instills nobler ideals.

Save—and have those whose success is dear to you open an account here. There is a spirit of service—a whole-hearted desire to accommodate, and a genuine human interest about this bank that you will appreciate.

When is Your Birthday?

Of course you are still having them once a year. Listen! We want you to know what some of your friends are planning to do. Next Sunday morning at the Methodist Sabbath School we are going to make an offering of one penny for each birthday we have celebrated since our birth, that will be rather a generous offering for you, but it is but once a year you are permitted to make such an offering, and the fund received will be expended for general missionary work. Remember every friend and member of our school is invited to have a part in this service. If you can't possibly come yourself we will accept your offering if sent, but we prefer that you bring it. We meet at 9:30 prompt. Formerly we have been receiving birthday offerings every Sunday, this will cover the birthdays for the whole year of 1911.—Supt. M. E. Sabbath School.

Woman Badly Burned.

Tuesday evening Mrs. Lillian Wilson was very badly burned while preparing supper over a coal stove. The family is poor, the husband being out of work, and through the assistance of our citizens, on Thursday Mrs. Wilson was taken to the Pontiac hospital by Dr. F. W. Brown, who had the case in charge. Dr. Marshall, of Pontiac, volunteered his services in the treatment of the poor woman.
