Miss Amy Fox, who has been visiting with her grandmother, Mrs. H. A. Fox and family, left Thursday for Kansas City.

Mrs. T. Ellsasser, of Braymer, Mo., was another old time resident who came back to visit Dwight friends. She was a guest of Mrs. J. J. Hahn.

Messrs. Dan Chariton, of Bloomington, and brother, Al Chariton, of New York State, attended Home Coming celebration. They both lived in Dwight a number of years ago.

Mrs. Claude Powell and Mrs. C. T. Jennings, of East St. Louis, spent Home Coming Week here with Mrs. Koehlein and Mrs. Lilla Reed. Mrs. Jennings will remain for a couple of weeks longer.

F. M. Davis and wife went to Cornell Wednesday to attend the Big Bend reunion, and home coming which is held there this week. Mr. Davis expects to meet several comrades of his regiment there.

Mr. W. C. Bursk, of Pueblo, Colo., who with his wife and daughter have been visiting here, left Monday for his home in Colorado, where he will pack his household goods and move back to Illinois. We understand he and his family will locate in Springfield.

Harry Karr Brown, of Hornell, New York, an attorney for the Erie Railway while in Illinois on a business trip, stopped over night in Dwight to visit his cousin, Willard S. Brown, clerk of the Livingston, whom he had not seen for thirty-three years.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Martin and children left Tuesday for a visit with friends at Everett, Wash. They went by way of Denver, Col., Salt Lake City, Utah, and California, and will come back by a northern route. They expect to be gone about six weeks.

Mr. Thos. Walsh, of Campus, was in town last Saturday.

Miss Ida Buehler spent the week at Morris attending teachers institute.

Miss Anna Shafer, of Kansas City, is the guest of her sister, Miss Shafer.

Miss Grace Rogers went to Chicago this morning to purchase millinery goods.

O. C. Jensen, of Peoria, a former Dwight resident, spent a few days here this week.

Call at the Shafer Hat Shop and inspect new and latest models in fall millinery.—Adv.

Mr. Jos. Morris, of Washington, Ill., visited at his brother's home, Mr. Will Morris, this week.

Mr. Louis Coe, of Englewood, a former resident of our town, spent part of the week here.

Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Perry, of Atlanta, are visiting the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ike Perry.

Congregational Church services tomorrow morning. Rev. W. J. Drew, of Daytona, Fla., will preach.

Miss May Weir and niece, Miss Etta Connor, of Joliet, spent Friday with Mr. and Mrs. Howard Connor.

Misses Ruth and Bernice Plummer, of Chicago, are visiting at the home of their aunt, Mrs. Frank Reeb.

Mrs. S. H. Potter and family, of Sheldon, are guests at her parent's home, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. S. Baker.

Mrs. Boyd, of Englewood, one of the old time settlers of Dwight, visited at the W. E. Thompson home this week.

Misses Alice Sherry and Mildred and Frances Eyer are spending the week at South Bend, Ind., with relatives.

Mr. Jas. McCarter, of Chicago, visited at the homes of his sisters, Mrs. Will Morris and Mrs. L. G. Davis, this week.

Miss Shafer returned Thursday from Chicago, where she had been buying new millinery goods for the fall season.

Mrs. Wm. Stafford, of Tonica, is visiting her sisters here, Mrs. Manning Smith, Mrs. Lizzie Adams and Miss Emma Baker.

Miss Hazel Goodman left for Chicago the first of the week to enter the wholesale millinery houses to secure the new fall styles.

Mrs. T. W. Jordan, of Joliet, a resident of Dwight many years ago, was the guest of Mrs. Adams and Miss Cora, part of this week.

J. G. Gantzert, of Harmon, Ill., was among those from away who came back to Dwight to participate in the Home Coming celebration.

Mrs. Sims, of Pontiac, a resident of Dwight many years ago, was here for the Home Coming, a guest of Miss Mayme and Mrs. Mable Barnum.

Many people from neighboring towns and those living on farms near Dwight attended our Home Coming Week on different nights during the week.

Miss Helen Brown entertained a number of her little friends at luncheon Thursday evening in honor of her cousin, Miss Mae Golden, of Joliet, who is visiting with her.

Mr. and Mrs. Parker Button, Miss Grace Brown and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Dornblasser, all of Chicago, attended the Home Coming celebration here and visited their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Brown.

Mrs. Susan Weldon, of Chicago, returned home Monday after spending Saturday and Sunday with her daughter, Mrs. L. Tanner. Her daughter, Miss Ada, has recently returned from an extended western trip.

Mrs. Emma Barr Watkins, of Chicago, has been spending part of her vacation here with her parents. Thursday of this week she and her sister, Mrs. C. W. Myers, left for Spring Lake, Mich., where they will remain about ten days.

Mrs. Nellie Phelps and sister, Mrs. Ora Hotchkiss and son, Roy, of Chicago, arrived on the Hummer Friday evening of last week to spend a few days with the family of John H. Jeffries, their aunt and uncle, during Home Coming week celebration.

A postal card received at this office from Rev. F. F. Farrington reads as follows: "Received the papers; many thanks for your kind words. This is a beautiful state. The climate we have found ideal. The days are hot but the nights are cool. Best wishes to all." The card was mailed from Modesto, Cal.

Miss Beryl Vickery entertained a few of her friends at a bridge party Thursday afternoon at her home on West Seminole street. Those present were Mrs. Louis Weicker, Misses Elsie Bartholic, Esther Mickelson, Emma Weicker, Edith Bartholic, Ella Mickelson and Ruth Bartholic. Miss Louise Merritt, of Magnolia, and Mrs. Silas Mickelson, of Chicago, were guests from out of town.

Jake Stahl's Team Here Sunday.

Manager Seabert has booked for next Sunday at the West Side Park the fast Jake Stahl's team. They have been playing some of the fastest semi-pro teams in this section and some good snappy ball should be seen at this game. Two of their players were formerly in the Federal League. Carver and Kann, the probable battery, won the pennant for the Armour Institute. Be one of the large crowd who will witness this game here next Sunday.

MEETING AND GREETING.

when away, there would not be any threats made."

Among the many visitors here we noticed Hugh Thompson, of Pontiac, father of Clyde Thompson. Mr. Thompson is well up in the 70ties, but is hale and hearty. He served three years for his country in the 129th Ill. Regt., and was an excellent soldier and a good citizen. He served as circuit clerk of the county four years. He was very much pleased with home coming week.

John Goodpseed, who went to Chicago to reside years ago, was here with his family, enjoying meeting with old friends and relatives.

Mr. Scott, of Vandalia, Ill., brother of Will Scott, visited the latter and family this week. He left here about twenty-seven years ago, and is well pleased and surprised at the advancement of Dwight. Mr. Scott is interested in politics and was for Hon. John J. Brown, of Vandalia, who was a candidate for the Republican nomination for governor several years ago. He is very much pleased with Dwight.

One business man on East street said: "I have been in business in Dwight for over twenty years, and last Saturday I did the largest business, by over one-third, that I ever did."

At such times many things take place which causes a division of opinion. If everyone can't be so awfully good, let them be as good as they can, and forgive and forget. It is pretty hard to corrupt any one who has not an inclination that way. There is a great deal of chance in life and some of us succeed while others get left by the wayside. It's a good plan to help each other and live up to the Golden Rule, rather than see nothing but bad in those who don't look at things the way others might.

There were some who tried to make Home Coming Week a failure but it was the biggest week Dwight ever saw.

If you want to know whether Home Coming Week was a success just ask the merchants who sell goods, etc.

Saturday, the 15th, over 2000 people saw the free moving picture show and heard the band concert and still some called it a failure. They should go and crawl into their holes and pull them in after them.

Home Coming Week was a good thing for Dwight and we are for Dwight.

Chas. Collins and family are here to visit old acquaintances and relatives. They are guests at the Livingston. Mr. Collins left here several years ago for Chicago. He was quite an athlete and became manager of one of the departments in the Great Northern Bath Parlors. Some years ago he left Chicago and went to Philadelphia and has gone into business for himself and is prosperous. His many friends are pleased to see him.

Did you notice the crowd at the free moving picture show. It looked as if everybody had come home.

The concert given by the M. E. Church Choir Sunday evening was largely attended and greatly enjoyed. It was under the direction of Mrs. Mable von Dahlen. The selections by the choir were well rendered and the special numbers, a solo by Mr. George Hood, of Streator, and a cornet and trombone duet by Messrs. Tanner and McClung, were very pleasing. Rev. McClung gave a short but very impressive and instructive address on "The Lost Word."

Many picnics were held by families and their guests on lawns and up at Renfrew Park.

The dances given by the M. W. A. Drill Team were quite well attended.

We had hoped to publish a full list of all who were here Home Coming Week, but could not secure a complete list. We regret this very much as we should like to have published the names of all those who attended our first Home Coming celebration.

The East and West Side business men played two ball games—one last week Friday and the other Wednesday afternoon of this week. These games were interesting and amusing, but owing to the stormy weather, were not largely attended.

The Dwight Masonic lodge held an open or social meeting after their regular meeting on Monday evening. A number of old time members from away were present, and remarks from many and appetizing refreshments all helped to make the occasion a very pleasant one.

Tuesday evening, upon invitation, Dwight Chapter O. E. S. No. 166 held a picnic at the Fox home on East Chippewa street. Fifty members, with representatives from other chapters who are in our city for Home Coming Week, were welcomed by the hostess, Mrs. Hattie Fox and Worthy Matron Miss Stella Baker. Some time was spent in visiting and at 6:30 supper was announced, each one finding their partner by matching comic pictures. The tables were arranged on the spacious porch, where the following menu was served: Sandwiches, fried chicken, macaroni and cheese, potato chips, potato salad, cottage cheese, pickles, olives, fruit salad, cake, ice cream, coffee. The pleasure of the evening is one long to be remembered by those who attended. The out of town guests were: Mrs. Lee Barnum, Iliopolis; Mrs. Hugh Thompson, Pontiac; Mrs. Wm. Stafford, Tonica; Mrs. Emma Chamberlin, Chicago; Mrs. Archie Atkinson, Bloomington; Miss Ada Wright, Chautauqua, N. Y.

Among the people from away who are here for Home Coming Week is Rev. W. J. Drew, a former pastor of the Congregational Church. Rev. Drew is located at Daytona, Fla., but is spending a month in the north. He will preach at the Congregational Church tomorrow morning only.

Reunion.

We acknowledge the receipt of an invitation to attend the annual reunion of the Bureau County's Soldiers and Sailors Association at Princeton, Illinois, Thursday and Friday, Sept. 17 and 18. All Union soldiers and sailors, Sons of Veterans, and their comrades and friends will be cordially welcome.

The regimental reunions of the 57th, 64th, 95rd and other regiments will be held, and quite a number from this neighborhood and Livingston and Grundy counties will attend. T. Sprague, vice president, and F. M. Herrick, of Princeton, are in command, and they want all the old boys to mobilize promptly and line up for a good time.

One Man -9000 Horsepower

How the Largest Exclusive Tire Factory
Keeps Cost Down and Keeps Quality Up

Firestone TIRES

Cost No More Than Average

Every facility for economical production that science has been able to produce has been brought to bear in the Firestone plant to give you Firestone quality at ordinary price. The power plant, where one man feeds the boilers that produce 9000 horsepower, is one example of Firestone scientific management.

The great Firestone plant naturally attracts the country's greatest tire experts.

Every man in this factory is a tire specialist, doing his work with skill and accuracy.

Here nothing but tires is made, and every ounce of steam power, every effort of the workmen, every bit of study and thought, are focused on the making of Firestone Tires. This concentration and specialization in production make it possible to give highest quality at a cost no greater than only average tires.

Most for Your Money in First Cost and Final Economy
