

Splendors of the Panama-Pacific International Exposition Forecasted In Marvels of Art and Architecture

This photograph was taken in May.

GREATEST AND MOST BRILLIANT OF WORLD'S EXPOSITIONS WILL BE COMPLETED TO LAST DETAIL ON OPENING DAY.

PANORAMA of about one-fourth of the Panama-Pacific International Exposition, showing nine of the great exhibit palaces which are now within 5 per cent of being complete, lacking only the towers, arches and festival courts. Each of these palaces covers from five to nine acres. The setting in a series of subtropical gardens, extending for two and one-half miles along the San Francisco bay front adjacent to the Golden Gate, is the most beautiful and inspiring ever given an exposition. The vacant space in the center will contain the wonderful ten acre Court of the Universe, dominated by the scintillating Tower of Jewels, 435 feet high. To the right, not shown in the picture, is the concession area, named "El Camino" (The Highway), while to the left, outside the picture, are foreign and state buildings, live stock pavilions, race track, military and aviation fields and Palace of Fine Arts.

The Universal Language.
The one universal language is not Esperanto, but music. Everywhere the same musical score is played. The masters of different countries may have characteristic national qualities, but music-lovers everywhere find delight in a composition, it matters not from what land or clime the composer hails. Whether played in Germany or Italy or France or at home, your favorite music sounds the same.—Leslie's Weekly.

Ambition.
To one hard-working man of this busy generation success means time to retire to a quiet, book-lined room overlooking an old-fashioned garden, and read Dickens leisurely through again from Pickwick to Drood. Failing in that ambition, he would like to spend the evening of his life raking leaves in the peace and beauty of Branch Brook park with the other old men there employed. The commissioners will please consider this an application.—Newark News.

Birds Don't Like Bright Colors.
Martins, bluebirds and wrens do not take kindly to houses made of new, bright wood. Their instincts lead them to prefer the places which more nearly resemble the insides of decayed trees, in which their ancestors have nested from time immemorial. Build your birdhouses to suit the birds rather than to please your own tastes.—Farm and Fireside.

Can't Help It.
The Doctor—"And the baby is no better. Did you get those little black pills I spoke to you about?" Mrs. Newlywed—"Well, you see, the druggist had some awfully cute pink ones that just matched the darling's new dress, for 18 cents, marked down from 25, so I got those instead."

More Women Work Now.
In 1850 only one woman worked for wages to every ten men; now the ratio of one woman to four men.

Was on the Right Route.
John Reeve, English revivalist, was accosted by an elderly female with a small bottle of gin in her hand. "Pray, sir, I beg your pardon, is this the way to the workhouse?" John gave her a look of clerical dignity, and, pointing to the bottle, gravely said, "No, ma'am, but that is!"

Staggered the Witness.
"Now tell us," sternly demanded the young legal luminary whose brow overhung like the back of a snapping turtle, addressing the cowering witness, "what was the weather, if any, upon the afternoon in question?"

Little Johnny's Guess.
Little sister, who was fond of asking questions, asked Johnny, "Why do they call Captain Spearpoint a veteran?" Johnny thought for a moment and then answered, "I guess it's because he's a horse doctor."

Sensible Berlin Authorities.
An old man in a Berlin suburb complained to the police that his sleep was disturbed by the singing of a thrush kept on the balcony of a neighbor's villa. A policeman who was ordered to go on duty near the balcony reported that the complaint was well grounded, and the neighbor has been ordered to remove the thrush.

Varying Weight of Elephants' Tusks.
The average weight of ivory obtained from a single elephant is about fifty pounds, but tusks weighing up to 150 pounds and 180 pounds have been procured. Examples have even been recorded of tusks exceeding 200 pounds in weight, but these are very rare.

Voice From Elba.
The more I study the world, the more I am convinced of the inability of force to create anything durable.—Napoleon Bonaparte.

Where He Drew the Line.
Suburban Resident—"It's simply fine to wake up in the morning and hear the leaves whispering outside your window. City Man—"It's all right to hear the leaves whisper, but I never could stand hearing the grass mown.—Tit-Bits.

Talking About Skill.
Son (a golf enthusiast)—"You must acknowledge, father, that it requires a great deal of skill to drive a ball 100 yards." Old Farmer—"Rubbish! It don't require half as much skill as it does to drive a pig 50 feet."

Small Causes of Fierce Wars.
Borrowing a tobacco pipe and failing to return it kindled a civil war which lasted for years among the rival races in Pamir and Afghanistan. A dispute as to the relative attractions of snails and vipers as food started fifty years of fighting between Milan and Pisa.

A Secret-keeper.
One of the finest secret-keepers on record was an Irishman, a prisoner of '98, who was captured with a comrade. He told the officer in command that he could make very important disclosures, but that he dared not do so as long as the other man lived, since his life would not be worth a day's purchase if that other managed to escape. The officer presently cleared that difficulty out of the way; whereupon the prisoner said: "Now shoot me as soon as you please; I knew he'd peach."

Nation of Gem Owners.
Customs statistics show the people of this country are the most ardent admirers of diamonds in the world. Not only are they the largest importers of the gems, but they own practically one-half of the entire diamond supply of the world.
