

Baker-Potter.

Miss Lura Baker and Dr. S. H. Potter were married at the home of the bride's parents, at high noon Nov. 1 1900, Rev. A. R. Morgan conducting the service. Only the immediate relatives and friends of the family were present, the wedding being a very quiet one.

Immediately after the ceremony a wedding dinner was served and many best wishes were extended.

The bride was dressed in a traveling suit and the groom wore conventional black. They left in the afternoon for Chicago from whence they will visit at home of the groom's parents, at Shelton. About December 15th Dr. and Mrs. Potter will locate in Salt Lake City, Utah.

Quedens-Graham.

Thursday evening between 7 and 8 o'clock, Miss Lizzie Quedens, and Charles Graham, both of this city, were married at the home of the bride's parents, the Rev. O'Brien officiating; the immediate friends and relatives were present at the ceremony, and shortly after the marriage ceremony, the Dwight band of which the groom is a member, gathered at the scene of festivities and rendered several selections. A wedding supper was served and there was merry making the remainder of the evening. Mr. Graham is a popular young citizen, of Dwight and the bride is one of Dwight's popular young ladies; they have many well wishers in their new home here.

Dunn-Dowling.

Married at the Catholic church Wednesday, Oct. 24, by Rev. M. P. O'Brien, Mr. Edward J. Dowling, of Chenoa, and Miss Mary A. Dunn, of Dwight. The bridesmaid was Miss Lizzie Neville, and the groomsmen, Mr. John Dunn, brother of the bride.

The bride is a well-known popular young lady of this place, and the groom is a popular young man of our neighboring city, Chenoa.

Mr. and Mrs. Dowling received the congratulations of all, and will take up their residence at Chenoa.

Johnson-Young.

Miss Mable J. Johnson of Dwight and Mr. John L. Young of Pontiac, were united in marriage Wednesday, at 1 p. m., at the home of the bride's parents, by the Rev. E. F. Wright, of Lexington, former pastor of the congregational church here.

It was a very quiet wedding, only immediate relatives and a few special friends being present. The bride was attired in a light gray, tailor-made traveling suit and the groom wore the conventional black. Immediately after the ceremony a splendid dinner was served. They were the recipients of many beautiful gifts.

The bride is a very popular and well known young lady and will be greatly missed by her many friends. The groom is a prosperous business man in Pontiac.

The couple left on the 2 o'clock train, amid showers of rice, for Chicago and from there will go to Cincinnati for a short wedding trip, after which they will go to housekeeping in Pontiac.

Peterson-Smith.

Saturday evening Oct. 13 at 8 p. m. Miss Helen K. Peterson and Mr. J. C. Smith were married by Rev. Lillien at the Danish Lutheran church. Only a few friends were at the ceremony, it being a quiet wedding. A wedding supper was served at which there was a merry time and best wishes for the happy couple were generously extended. The groom is one of Dwight's popular young men, and the bride is also well known.

Mr. and Mrs. Smith are at home to their friends in their new home on Seminole Street.

Gertrude Hoye and Will Ribardy were married Wednesday in Kinsman, Rev. Father Green officiating.

1900 Neville-Dunn.

Wednesday at 9 o'clock, Miss Elizabeth Neville, and M. Dunn were married at Kinsman, Ill., at the Sacred Heart church and after the ceremony the happy couple adjourned to the home of the bride's parents where a delightful dinner was served, and where many best wishes were extended to them by the friends and relatives. They also received numerous, and valuable presents. Both parties are well known and popular in Dwight, and vicinity, and have the very best wishes of the community.

Nelson-Bell.

Miss Marian Nelson and Wm. C. Bell were married at the home of the brides brother, George Nelson, at Marseilles, Wednesday evening, Nov. 21. The wedding was a very quiet one, only the relatives and a few immediate friends, were present, both parties are well-known and have many best wishes from Dwight and vicinity. Mr. and Mrs. Bell will visit friends in Marseilles and elsewhere.

Meehan-Moran.

A quiet wedding took place at St. Paul's church at 8 o'clock Tuesday morning. The contracting parties were Miss Anna Meehan, of Joliet, and Patrick Moran, of Nevada. The ceremony was conducted by Father Griffy assisted by Father O'Brien and Houser, of Joliet. Miss Nangles, of Wilmington, was bridesmaid, and Wm. Cahill was best man. After the ceremony Mrs. James Lannan served a bountiful wedding breakfast at her home for the bridal party. Amid showers of rice they departed on the 10:55 train for Chicago. They will make their future home at Nevada.

Those who attended the wedding from out of town were: Mrs. Patrick Lannan, of Saunemin; Miss Nangles, of Wilmington; Mrs. Carroll, of Verona; and Miss Susie Meehan, of Joliet.

Roudebush-Chritton.

The marriage of Mr. Charles D. Roudebush, of Minonk, Ill., to Miss Fannie L. Chritton, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sanford Chritton, took place at the home of the bride's parents near Wilson, Livingston county, Ill. February 20, 1901.

Mr. and Mrs. Roudebush will make their home in Manville, Ill.

Johnson-Collins.

Simon Johnson and Miss Liza Collins were married at the home of the groom Sunday, the 24th. The wedding was a very pretty affair and a host of friends extend best wishes to the happy couple, who will make Dwight their home and reside in Renfrew.

Last Wednesday, Feb. 20, at 5 p. m. a very pretty wedding occurred at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Reicky, their daughter, Sophie, to Geo. Burkhardt both of this locality. Miss Rosa Stuberrauch, of Kenosha, Wis., was bridesmaid and Edward H. Stuberrauch, of Streator, best man. Rev. Gronewald performed the wedding service which was a pretty affair. The wedding was followed by a merry time and relatives of both parties being present. Mr. and Mrs. Burkhardt have the best wishes of their many friends and the whole community for a happy journey through life.

Perschnick Anderson.

Sunday March 17, Charles Anderson and Minnie Perschnick were married, the service occurring at the bride's home in Goodfarm during the evening and a merry wedding supper was served, the occasion being a very happy affair.

Mr. and Mrs. Anderson will reside 3 miles northeast of Dwight where Mr. Anderson has rented a farm.

Both parties are well known in Dwight and vicinity and have many best wishes.

Spellman-Klughart.

John S. Klughart and Miss Bertha Spellman were married at the Methodist parsonage at 2 p. m. Tuesday. Both parties are from this vicinity and have many well wishes on their journey through life. The happy couple will make their home here.

PRETTY EVENING WEDDING.

Brown-Henry.

A very pretty evening wedding occurred Wednesday evening, April 10th, at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. James Brown on West Waukonsa street, when their second daughter, Miss M. Adelaide was united in marriage to Mr. Edward L. Henry, both of whom are most highly respected and esteemed residents of this city.

At 8:30 o'clock, accompanying the strains of Wagner's Lohengrin, played by Miss Hollmeyer, the wedding march was led by Little Miss Dorothy Doty and Master George Reed followed by the Little Misses Capitola and Etta Emple, who bore the wide pink ribbons which formed the aisle through which the bridal couple passed the bridal couple passed from the back parlors to the front parlors, where they with the little man and maids of honor formed a semi-circle facing Rev. Morgan who united the nuptial parties in marriage with a brief but impressive service.

Twenty six of the near relatives of the couple including several of the bride's most intimate young lady friends witnessed the ceremony, after which congratulations were extended.

The bride was charmingly gowned in pink silk, the groom wore black and the little man and maids of honor were prettily dressed in white.

A delicious course luncheon was served by four of the bride's friends, the Misses Pettitt, Dunlop, Hollmeyer, and Mary Dunlop.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry left immediately for the groom's farm four miles northwest of Dwight, where they will be at home to their friends. They received many beautiful presents, and they have the sincerest wishes of their friends for future success.

Carson-McWilliams.

A very quiet wedding last Thursday morning was that of Miss Carrie Carson, of St. Louis, and Mr. David McWilliams, of Dwight, Ill. The ceremony took place at St. John's Methodist Church South on the northwest corner of Locust street and Ewing Ave. Rev. Dr. I. S. Hopkins officiating. All of the arrangements were very simple and only the immediate family were present. The bridal party entered at 10:30 o'clock, and after the ceremony the bride and groom received the congratulations of their family very informally. Afterward they left for a wedding tour, and at its conclusion will take up their residence in Dwight, Ill. Miss Carson is the daughter of Mr. James O. Carson, of 4367 McPherson avenue, and a sister of Dr. N. B. Carson, of Westminster place.

They sailed for Europe on their wedding trip June 6th and will spend the season in travel and reach London in September in time to attend the Methodist Ecumenical Council, of which Mr. McWilliams is a delegate, which meets in City Road Chapel, which was built by John Wesley, and holds a two weeks' session, from Sept. 6th to 17th.

Miller-Esson.

Married, Thursday, July 4, at the home of the bride's son J. S. Miller and Mrs. Esther Esson, Rev. B. F. Baizer, of Pontiac, officiating.

Married.

At the home of the bride's parents, Wednesday evening, July 10, at 8 p. m. Miss Eva Leiser and Mr. John M. Hornberger, Past H. H. officiated.

Married.

Sunday morning at the German Lutheran church in Dwight, Rev. Wockenfuss united in marriage Mr. Fred Kepplinger and Miss Maggie Zabel. The young folks are well known and very popular and start on life's journey with the best wishes of their friends.

After the ceremony the guests gathered at the home of the bride's parents where a splendid dinner awaited them. Many handsome presents were received and quite a number of guests from a distance were present.

Godfried Perschnick has taken Miss Lena Anderson, of Round Grove, unto himself as a helpmeet and the young people have the best wishes of their friends. MAR. 3-02

Martin-Vickery.

A very pretty wedding occurred at high noon Wednesday at the home of the bride's parents, the contracting parties being Miss Ina Myrtle, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Martin, and Chas. R., son of Mr. and Mrs. John Vickery, Rev. A. R. Morgan officiating. The ring ceremony was used and the parlors were handsomely decorated, the couple standing under an arch of smilax, ferns and roses. Only relatives of the contracting parties were present. After congratulations an elaborate dinner was served. The bridal couple left Chicago on the 2:08 afternoon for train and go to New York from whence they leave for the continent Sunday.

Doctor Vickery and wife will first touch at Boulogne, France, from there to England, spending and some time in studying in the colleges of medicine. He will also take a course in Berlin. They will spend at least a year in the old country, visiting many places of interest. Many handsome presents were received from friends.

1901 Avery-Sterns Oct 1

Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the residence of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Avery, of Oak and Bennett streets, Pontiac, occurred the marriage of their daughter, Jessie M. and Charles W. Stearns, of Nevada. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Andrew Scott, of the Christian church, of which the bride is a devoted member. The house was tastefully decorated for the occasion in evergreens. Immediately after the ceremony all sat down to a delicious wedding dinner. Mr. Stearns is a prominent young farmer of Nevada, who is well and favorably known in this community. Miss Avery is a popular young school teacher and has a large number of warm friends in Dwight and vicinity. The young couple left on the evening train for Chicago on their wedding trip. On their return they will make their home in Nevada township, west of Dwight. Among the guests that were present were the members of Mr. Stearns' family from Dwight, Mrs. Fitzgerald and son, Walter, of Fairbury; Mrs. Chas. Allen, of Coldwater, Mich.; Clement Bell, of Champaign; Mr. and Mrs. O. F. Avery, and Miss Munsey, of Streator, a cousin of the groom.

Sterns-Wood.

Miss Lillie Edith Sterne, of Dwight, Ill., was married Tuesday evening, Aug. 20, at 8 o'clock, to Chas. L. Wood, of 105 Early avenue. The wedding took place at the home of the groom, and was a quiet affair, only a few friends of the family being invited. Rev. F. D. Sheets officiated. The bride was attired in white organdy silk and carried lilies of the valley and white bridal roses. The house was decorated in pink, white roses and ferns; the table with American beauties and carnations. Mr. and Mrs. Wood will reside in Edgewater. News-Herald. (Bogers Park)

Jenkins-Kime, Oct 3

Thursday morning at 9:30 at the M. E. parsonage, Mr. Chas. C. Kime and Miss Bessie P. Jenkins were united in marriage, Rev. A. B. Morgan officiating. Miss Bessie is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Jenkins. The young people left on the morning train for Springfield where they will visit the state fair. Upon their return they will go to housekeeping on the farm. Both of the young people are well and favorably known and everybody wishes them much joy and happiness.

Chas. Patterson surprised his friends and relatives by bringing home a wife Friday. He was married last Wednesday to a Miss Luby of Alexandria. Mrs. Patterson returned to Alexandria Monday.

TOCK-WEICKER

A Pretty Quiet Home Wedding of Our Popular Young People.

1901

For many moons dame rumor has often set the date and tried to hurry our popular young baker into committing the rash act of matrimony, but it was not until Monday that he could muster sufficient courage to go to Pontiac and get the necessary documents.

Wednesday evening at the home of the bride's parents, Philip D. Weicker led to the altar Miss Anna J. Tock, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Tock. The wedding was a quiet one only relatives of the contracting parties being present.

At 8 o'clock Miss Anna Weicker began the wedding march as the bride leaning upon the arm of her father, took their places in front of a hand-bank of flowers. Misses Katherine Weicker and Lucy Tock attended the bride as bridesmaids and Messrs Albert Tock and Louis Weicker acted as groomsmen. Rev. Wocke, of the German Lutheran church performed the ceremony in an impressive manner after which the happy newly married people were duly congratulated, and then all adjourned to the dining room where a feast was in waiting.

The bride and bridesmaids were dressed in white and the groom in conventional black. Many handsome and useful presents were received from their many friends.

Those from a distance in attendance were Mrs. Nelson, of Wesley, Iowa; Geo. Decker, of Springfield; Mo. and Mrs. A. J. Eggenberger, Lewis, Philip and Miss Christine Weicker, of Chicago. The bride and groom left on their wedding trip through Missouri Thursday at 1:40 p. m., and will be gone a couple of weeks, after which they will be at home to their friends.

We must extend our congratulations and best wishes, and we hope the joys and new ties may ever be sweeter than the delicious confections he has been dealing out to us this long time.

Stevens-Steichen.

Miss Maudie Stevens and Mr. George Steichen were married Tuesday, September 17, at the M. E. parsonage, Rev. A. R. Morgan officiating. Both of the young folks are well known favorites and we wish the captain and his bride the most perfect happiness possible. They left on the 2:03 p. m. train for the east amid showers of rice and good wishes.

Wednesday, Mr. Clarence Patterson, of Peoria, led to the altar Miss Mabel J. Jenkins, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Jenkins of this place, the marriage ceremony taking place in Joliet. Mr. Patterson has accepted a fine position in Joliet and the happy couple will be at home to their friends in a cozy cottage in that city. We extend the young folks our congratulations.

Myers Anderson.... 23..... Dwight.
Anna M. Hanson.... 17..... Dwight.

Myers Anderson and Miss Anna M. Watson at the residence of the bride's parents.

A pretty quiet wedding occurred at the M. E. parsonage Wednesday, the contracting parties being Samuel F. Jenkins and Miss Madge D. Seymour. Rev. A. R. Morgan officiating. Both of these young people are well known and popular and we extend our congratulations and best wishes. They will live upon the Orr farm west of town. MAR. 4, 1903

Married.

Wednesday, Miss Ella, the charming daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Haack, was married at their residence to Mr. Christian Klingelhofer of Owego. The young folks will make their home on his farm in Owego township and we congratulate the young people and wish them abundant success.