BASE BALL.

A Resume for the Year of the Frank L. Smith Club.

The base ball season which closed month ago, while it was not as successful as the year previous was all good enough to suit the majority of the loyal fans of this city. In 1911 the team played 30 games, winning 21 and tying 8 and losing one: a percentage of 725.

In the season of 1912 they played 26 games, winning 14 and losing 12 for
