Mayor Pierce Appointed Liaison Officer of Three Counties by Illinois State Council of Defense

Feb. 6—Mayor Chester D. Pierce, of Dwight, received notice this week from William F. Waugh, chairman of the Civil Protection Committee of the Illinois State Council of Defense, that he had been appointed Liaison Officer of District 14, which covers the three counties of Livingston, Woodford and McLean. Mayor Pierce will appoint County Liaison Officers for each one of these three counties. These men will be his chief subordinates, and will supervise all civilian protective activities in their respective counties.

Harold Von Qualen is the general Manager of the firm known as the West Side Furniture Co. on West Mazon Avenue, which first opened its doors in 1906. His aim and desire has always been to serve the public better with quality home furnishings at reasonable prices. In this store you will find everything for every room, floor coverings, Venetian blinds and shades, mirrors, framed pictures, floor lamps, etc. They also feature Sherwin-Williams Paints and Varnishes, painter's supplies and wall paper. Pay this store a visit and see their fine exhibit of reliable merchandise.

S. C. Scott operates the Shell Super-Service Station at the corner of Mazon Ave. and Franklin St. Mr. Scott started in the service station business in 1923 in the old Kepplinger block which was destroyed by fire in 1929. After the fire the Shell Oil Co. erected the present modern station where all Shell Oil Products are sold. You will also find Goodyear Tires, Delco Batteries and other auto accessories at this popular establishment. Mr. Scott and his associates are experienced in their line and can give you an excellent job of lubrication, polishing, washing and wheel balancing.

Harrie Fairchild is the manager of A. B. McCollum's Blackstone Theatre on West St., Dwight, Ill. He assumed the position of manager the forepart of November, 1942, and received his training under Mr. Arthur J. Nelson of Hoopston, Ill., general manager of the A. B. McCollum circuit. Mr. Fairchild is very courteous and accommodating and makes every effort to please the patrons.

The Blackstone is one of the finest showhouses in this part of the state, presenting only the best obtainable in motion picture entertainment. Attend the Blackstone often and relax in the comfortable deeply cushioned seats.
