

ELMER M. SEABERT

Elmer M. Seabert has been in the men's clothing and furnishings business in Dwight for more than 32 years. At the present time his store is located on East Street, next to the National Tea Store. He carries a complete line of men's furnishings of the highest quality such as Curlee and J. Capps & Sons Suits and Overcoats, Arrow Shirts, Faultless Pajamas, Martine-lli Hats, the latest neck- wear and hosiery and many other items. You will find Mr. Seabert courteous and accommodating at all times. Pay his store a visit and see the fine stock of reliable wearing apparel on display there.

C. C. DE LONG

C. C. DeLong is the General Manager of the firm of C. C. DeLong & Sons on East Delaware Street, Dwight. He is a skilled machinist with 40 years of experience to his credit. This firm specializes in general auto and machine repairing and is one of the best equipped machine shops in this part of the state. They have a corps of skilled mechanics who are kept busy repairing autos and farm machinery. Their work is satisfactory and their prices are reasonable. A foundry where castings of all descriptions are made is also operated in connection with the machine shop.

CLARENCE BOYER

Clarence and Ralph Boyer conduct the business known as Boyer Bros. Garage on South Franklin Street. The business was first started in 1913 by Clarence and the late Elwood Boyer and the late George Brumbach and was known as Brumbach & Boyer Bros. In 1915 Clarence and Elwood purchased Mr. Brumbach's interest and called the place Boyer Bros. Garage, by which name it has been known ever since. When their brother Ralph returned from service in World War I he acquired a one-third interest and the three brothers operated the business until 1928 when the late Elwood sold his interest to Clarence and Ralph and he moved to California where he entered a similar business. Boyer Bros. business policy of fair dealing and courtesy to everyone have made their establishment is one of the most complete in the county. They have all the new modern equipment needed to keep your automobile in first-class running order and their workmen are skilled mechanics who will do a splendid job in keeping your car rolling for the duration. They are local dealers of Buick Automobiles and Diamond T Trucks. Standard Oil Products.

RALPH H. BOYER

DR. H. J. RIEGEL

Dr. H. J. Riegel, a graduate of Northwestern University Dental School in 1920. Practiced Dentistry at Sioux City, Iowa, until 1929, when he moved to Los Angeles, Calif. For a period of one year he taught at the University of Southern California Dental School. He came to Dwight in July, 1932, and has been practicing here since that time.

ALLAN S. HOLBROOK

Allan S. Holbrook, business manager of the firm of Dustin & Holbrook, and editor of the Star and Herald and The Banner, came to Dwight in 1905 and entered into partnership with the late Wm. G. Dustin. During the past thirty-seven years his efforts have been expended in presenting to the community a weekly paper that would represent in every way this progressive village. Through these efforts, and those who have been associated with him much of that time, the business has grown and progressed until today Dwight has a newspaper and printing plant that compares favorably with many larger cities.

ARTHUR R. TOCK

Arthur R. Tock is a junior partner of the Dwight Star and Herald. He began work as apprentice at the local printing plant March 3, 1910, and in 1928 acquired an interest in the business. He is a practical printer and advertising man, and during his close to 33 years in the advertising and printing field, has made every effort to produce the better kind of advertising and printing. He served for a short time in the U. S. Army in World War I; is a Past Commander of Dwight Post 486, American Legion, now serving as Finance Officer of this organization, and a member of the Village Board of Dwight.

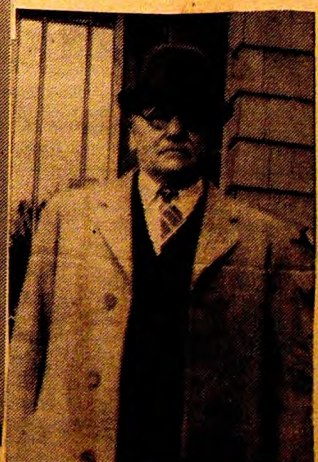

WM. A. ZSCHAU

Wm. A. Zschau owns and operates the Dwight Greenhouses, located on East Waupansie St. He supplies the choicest flowers for all occasions to the public of this community. Mr. Zschau has been a florist for more than 30 years and is an artist in his line. He offers at all times plants, cut flowers, floral designs and landscape gardening. His service compares favorably with the best in the country. When you buy from this firm you are not buying from a distributor, but from a man who produces his product right here in your own community. His phone number is 122.

ARTHUR R. GOLEY

Arthur R. Goley is the manager of the M. & M. 5c to $1.00 Store located on East St. "Art" has been with this organization ever since the store first opened in Dwight in 1935. The M. & M. Store has a reputation of selling merchandise of the highest quality at most reasonable prices, and you will find it to your advantage to trade at this popular establishment, since their stock embraces a number of complete lines. Mr. Goley is familiar with the requirements of his patrons and makes every effort to render each a truly personal service.

HENRY BURGWALD

Henry Burgwald operates the Dwight Dairy which is located on North Franklin St. Mr. Burgwald has been furnishing the people of this community with fresh milk, cream and butter daily for more than twenty years. He has the most modern equipment in his dairy and takes great pleasure in seeing that his customers get the highest grade products and the best possible service. Fair and straightforward in his dealings, it is not strange that his business is ever increasing. The Dwight Dairy is a truly reputable concern, deserving of your patronage and duly appreciative of same.