

F 1936

After eight and one-half years faithful service as postmaster Dwight, J. E. Garrett resigned his office, due to ill health, and his resignation was accepted by the U. S. postoffice department at Washington, D. C., the latter part of September.

IN CO.

SMITH MOTOR SALES
135 E. Mazon Ave.