

PVT. EARLYN K. HILL
Pvt. Earlyn K. Hill was inducted into the armed forces March 28, 1944, and was sent overseas in September, 1944. Pvt. Hill is in the Infantry and was wounded in action in France November 22. He received a wound in the right foot, but made rapid recovery in a hospital in England and is now in New York. Mrs. Hill received a phone call from her husband Jan. 3, telling her he is back in this country. This is a happy surprise for all of his friends and relatives. He expects to be sent to a hospital closer home.
