

Camera Highlights of Goodfarm School Program

ring Helen Anderson

ES 87TH BIRTHDAY TH GREAT-GRANDCHILDREN

RA BOWER AND GREAT-GRANDCHILDREN
 rbara Bower celebrated her 87th birthday on July 4th, of her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer ldren, grandchildren and great-grandchildren were in the important event.
 ture, taken that day, shows Mrs. Bower surrounded lchildren.
 left to right they are: Rack Row—Wilma Sorensen, Jr., Dale Bilborough, Betty Bilborough.
 Mrs. Bower holding Beverly Sorensen.
 Kathryn Gantzert, Billy Davies, Sharon Bilborough.

Oh, you!
 DRUG STORE

It's time to consider the future.
 May it hold nothing but
 Good for you.

BEST WISHES
 '50 GRADS

BUICK SALES AND SERVICE
BOYER BROTHERS

And all our best for future
 success.

A WHALE OF A JOB,
 YOU'VE DONE
 CLASS OF 1950!

children and his father.
 the cream mixture.
 Mr. Mallaney, who farmed in Vienna township all his life, was a member of the Sacred Heart Church and Holy Name Society of the church at Kinsman, and of the Seneca Council, Fourth Degree Knight of Columbus.
 The townships in the north
 were set off when he was ed in marriage with Ida Cushing,
 March 17, 1919, at Seneca.
 Surviving are his wife, mother,
 eight children, Bernard, Edward, Jr., Norene, Kathleen and Joan, at Funeral services were held Mon-
 he suffered a stroke.
 been a patient since May 16 when clock Friday night when he had Hospital, Morris, Ill., at 11:40 o-
 Rev. M. A.