

CHILDREN OF THE FIRST FOUR GRADES of the East and West Side Schools performed in an operetta "Spring Glow" in the high school gymnasium on Friday evening, March 24. The children portrayed: Pussy Willows, Frost Elves, Raindrops, Breezes, Merry Bees, Butterflies, Brownies, Sunshine Fairies and Spring Maidens in the very clever operetta. In the picture below, Sheila Smith is shown in her Bluebird costume. The other young lady at the right is Marilyn Von Qualen. The negatives of these photos were obtained through the courtesy of Mrs. Agnes Ferguson.

Rev. Victor Marriott New Pastor at Streator Congregational Church

Rev. Victor E. Marriott, who has been living in Dwight and has been supplying the pulpit of the Congregational Church in Streator for several weeks, has been invited by the congregation to become its pastor. He took up his duties at the church Sunday.

Rev. Marriott is a graduate of Beloit College, Beloit, Wis., and the Chicago Theological Seminary. He taught in St. Paul's Institute, Tarasus, Turkey; in Pomona College, Claremont, Calif., and at Pleasant Hill Academy, in Tennessee. For sixteen years he was director of relations for the Chicago

VER AN
wer celeb
on-in-law
randchild
portant e
en that ight the Bilsboro
ver holdi
Gantzert,