Acre of Lumber

An average acre in the Douglas fir region will grow 600 board feet of lumber every year.

Ruled by Priest-King.

Tibet is a theocracy — governed by priests of Lamaism, the state religion. A form of Buddhism, it makes generous use of legend and superstition. The 14th Dalai Lama, now reigning under a regent and council of priests in the lamasery-palace at Lhasa, was installed in 1939.
