REV. STRANDSKOV AND FAMILY FETED

REV. AND MRS. STRANDSKOV

The parishioners of St. Peter's Evangelical Lutheran Church and pastors of the local churches gathered in the church parlors Sunday evening at 6:30 where a farewell party was held for Rev. and Mrs. Holger Strandskov.

Rev. Strandskov and his family moved to Kimballton, Iowa, where he has accepted the pulpit. The Strandskovs left Dwight Wednesday.

Rev. Alfred Sorensen, of Chicago, acted as toastmaster. The local Barbershoppers did a bit of vocal work as part of the entertainment.

Other pastors who were present were: Rev. M. A. Tracy, St. Patrick's Catholic Church; Rev. F. Roy Dolan, Methodist Church; Rev. F. O. Stroebel, Zion Evangelical United Brethren Church; and Rev. Clarence B. Gould, Congregational Church.

The heads of various church organizations extended "good wishes" to the Strandskovs and the congregation presented them with a "Road of Memory" ticket containing the names of those who helped fill a miniature luggage.

Rev. Marvin Nygaard, of Freds-ville, Iowa, has accepted St. Peter's Church to fill the vacancy caused by Rev. Strandskov's resignation. According to present plans, Rev. Nygaard will begin his work here around January 15, 1950.

Frank Andrews is acting president of the church now since the resignation of Charles Lauritzen, who gave up the office October 1. Mr. Andrews was secretary and according to the by-laws of the church, he is number two man.

Ruth Gantzert Completes Nursing Course May 5 At Presbyterian Hospital

Miss Ruth Gantzert, 1944 graduate of Dwight Township High School, was one of 55 nurses who received diplomas at commencement exercises conducted by the school of nursing of Presbyterian Hospital, Chicago, on Thursday, May 5. Miss Gantzert completed the three year nursing course in March. She is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer G. Gantzert, Rural Route 1, Gardner.

Presbyterian hospital school of nursing is widely known for its high standards of organization and curriculum and the important positions held by many of its graduates. It is accredited by the State of Illinois and the National League of Nursing Education, and registered with the Board of Regents of the University of the State of New York.

The enrollment in the Presbyterian school of nursing includes students from all parts of the United States and from several other countries, including Canada and the Philippines. Registrations are now being accepted for the next class which will enter on September 19, 1949. Interested high school graduates may obtain an illustrated 36-page brochure describing student activities and giving full information about entrance requirements by addressing a request to: School of Nursing, Presbyterian Hospital, Chicago 12, Illinois.
