All are from the Dwight area.

REV. E. E. SCHAEFER NEW PASTOR OF ZION, SALEM CHURCH

Rev. E. E. Schaefer, who has been named pastor of the Zion and Salem Evangelical United Brethren Churches, arrived in Dwight last week Thursday to take over his duties. Prior to moving here Rev. Schaefer was pastor of the Christian Union Church in Metamora and the Evangelical United Brethren Church at Low Point.

Rev. and Mrs. Schaefer have three children, Gene, 17, who will be a senior in high school; Thelma, 13, an eighth grade student, and Dickie, 6, who will enter first grade. Other pastorates held by Rev. Schaefer have been at Plainfield, his first, Manhattan, Westervelt and Stockton.

The new Dwight minister was born and raised in Barrington, Ill., receiving his education in the Barrington grade and high schools. He and his wife are both graduates of Western Union College (now Westmar), at LaMars, Iowa.

Rev. Schaefer spent one year at the Biblical Seminary in New York City and then completed his study for the ministerhood at Naperville Theological Seminary.

On Sunday, members of his new congregations, held a reception in his honor following the children's day services in the Zion church. A potluck dinner was served to those present.
