

Products made from salt were on exhibit in the chemistry room of Dwight high school Thursday and Friday. Those in the picture are, right: Helen Baker, J. R. Tweed, instructor, and Richard Roeder. The room in the school system had a display arranged by the student in addition to program features in the high school gym afternoon evening.

CAPT. son of M
 of Dwight
 for a to gineers
 ion. Be
 Capt. S
 Puerto
 His wife
 Baker
 year old are at parents
 vision b
 cited u
 when a dential
 Secreta
 cently

KIETH HENRY IMMKE, born January 18, 1953, was two months old at the time this picture was taken. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Francis Immke, Fairbury. His mother is the former Pearl Kime of Dwight. His maternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. George Kime, north of Dwight, and his paternal grandfather is Henry Immke of Fairbury.

JENNINGS L. MILBAUER, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Milbauer, 106 S. Clinton Avenue, Dwight, is among 2,500 candidates now undergoing officer training at the Marine Corps Schools, Quantico, Va. Milbauer is a student at Purdue University, Lafayette, Ind.