

Ever Fly Over Dwight? This is what our Village looks like from a plane in the skies overhead. The view is probably not new to Dorothy Paulsen, Harold Eddington, Frank Tunberg, the Harvey Kimes and other localites who have been enjoying the cool breezes above Dwight in their planes all summer long. The picture was photographed by the Aerial Photo Division of the Augustine Engraving Co. of Marshalltown, Iowa, a few weeks ago.