

JOAN HOFFMAN, daughter of Wayne Hoffman, Gardner, Ill., has been selected by the Dwight chapter of the Future Homemakers of America as the delegate to the Illinois State Leadership Training Conference. This conference is scheduled at East Bay Camp, Lake Bloomington, Illinois, July 26-30. Joan, is a sophomore at the Dwight Township high school and is president of her local chapter.

ALLEN HOFFMAN, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Hoffman has received word from the Illinois Association of the Future Farmers that he has been awarded the State Farmer degree in that organization. The award will be made in the form of a diploma at Springfield on June 11. Hoffman had previously been placed first in swine production during his four years in high school and the Illinois F.F.A. Foundation. He is also the winner of the agricultural department award of D.T.S. and the DeKalb Agricultural Association Award.

TURKISH STUDENT ADDRESSES ROTARY CLUB WEDNESDAY

Mr. Turi Taishi of Turkey, a rural youth exchange student, was guest at the Wednesday meeting at the Dwight Rotary Club. Sullivan, president of the Congregational Church sided at the meeting. Mr. Taishi is visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Vin Burkhart for a month and he is talking about his native land and the exchange program. Visiting rotarians were Mr. and Mrs. Carmi and Al Morris. Guest at the meeting was Harry Bickel of Milwaukee. It was announced that the next meeting of the Board of Directors would be held on July 19, at 4 o'clock in the National Bank Building.

ed Friday, April
York City. The
nd Mrs. Walter

Approximately 560 delegates and 35 counsellors from Future Homemakers chapters throughout Illinois will attend the Leadership Training Conference at East Bay. The Future Homemakers of America is a national organization of high school pupils who have taken or are taking homemaking courses. The Illinois association has a membership of approximately 27,000.

The theme of the 1954 conference, "Leadership—Torch of Democracy," will emphasize the techniques and responsibilities of individual leadership. Mary Ann King, Marion, State President of the Future Homemakers will preside over the conference.