

MISS EMMA SIEDENTOP, who is retiring as fourth grade teacher in the Dwight grade school after serving for 36 years, receives a bouquet of roses and a citation from E. W. McPheeters, adjutant of the American Legion post. The presentation occurred during grade school graduation rites Monday night and a packed house gave Miss Siedentop a standing ovation that lasted several minutes as tribute to her work as an educator.

May 29, 1963

(Star & Herald photo)