

"Esmeralda" is the cognomen dubbed the "fivver" owned by C. J. Ahern, Jr., and is a source of joy to him and his pals Victor Sondergaard and Edward Halloran. The fantastic symbols which decorate the car in bright colors make it very noticeable as it spins around town generally filled with young boys who get a great deal of pleasure out of the gaily decorated vehicle. We understand the boys are now collecting a number of license plates with which to vary the decorations.

