THE STAR.

Official Paper of the City.

It has been rumored for some time past that Dwight was to have a large weekly newspaper, but as the expected journal has failed to make its appearance and rather than have the community disappointed(?) I have concluded and do present herewith to the people of Dwight and vicinity, the initial number of the new Weekly Journal, which, with all proper deference and modesty, but with no small amount of agreeable anticipations, I have ventured to make to the people a small weekly offering, which may be a source of satisfaction and delight in hours snatched from the engagements of business and requirements of public life. With no intentions or desires of creating undue expectations as to the future of this Journal, but merely in justice to myself, would say, that the first Number is not as complete as I intended it should be.

In conclusion permit me to say that Dwight may never have cause to be ashamed of the First Number of "The Star."

Mr. Dickens is said to have sent home 10,000 in gold as a part of the profits of his readings in this country,

He Must be a Yankee.—A man in country announces that his gold will come off in just the
