

C. J. Hudd & Co's Column.

C. J. Hudd & Co.

(Successor to D. Mc Williams.)

DEALERS IN

Dry Goods & Groceries, Hats & Caps, Boots, Shoes, Queensware, etc.

—Go to Hetzels if you wish to see a cheap and well selected stock of Dry Goods,—and the clerks—how pleasant.

“Jim” Parsons continues to do carting in the highest style of the art. Choice Cigars at the News Depot.

Chicago & St. L. R. R.

Arrival of Trains.

Going North, 2 30 A. M. & 5 11 P. M.

Going South, 1 20 A. M. & 11 40 A. M.

POST OFFICE HOURS.

Open at 7 A. M.
Closed at 7 1-2 P. M.

HARDWARE NEWELL'S

Agricultural Implements, Stove & Tin Ware.
Mazon Avenue, Dwight, Illinois.

Lost Time—A lady, who was desperately addicted to play, was confessing herself. The priest, among other arguments to dissuade her from gaming, said “she ought to consider the loss of time.” “Ah, father!” said she, “it is always what vexes me, so much time is lost in shuffling.”

When may a man be said to be dressed in borrowed plumes? —When he's tarred and feathered.

THE

VOL. 1.

PO

TH

By A

It was on Monday
While quiet
And musing o'er
The happy day

A greeting fell
A radiant me
And in this me
The little “S

I picked it up
Delighted with
That gently flow
In calm unru

Methought this
Of all the friends
So that in future
A volume of

Its pages tell us
With which we
And how the late
While walking

And by our aid
Good news from Until all o'er the
This “Star”

Come, rally the Progressive men
And in the end
Reserved for

CHAWIN' GUM
She did not smoke
Beer, porter,
But oh! she had
That lovely g

TRIFLING ABSURD thought he could
the dollar less, is to an iceberg with