Major Judd, Cap't. Stevens, Dr. Keeley, and Dr. Keeley's MARE went off during the past week some where for a pleasant time. All four have returned, looking not a whit better for their search after happiness. The Major and Cap't had to be written for. The Dr. telegraphed for and the mare SENT FOR "pro bono publico." They must do 'biz' at some other point where they are less appreciated if they want to remain gone for any length of time without disturbance. At present they are necessary to our FOURTH and we must have them here.
