

NATIONAL HOUSE,

We call the attention of our readers today to the advertisement in our columns of this splendidly fitted up Hotel. Mr. Joseph A. Turner proprietor. Mr. Turner has long been favorably known to the traveling public as a hotel keeper, and therefore needs no puffing at the hands of ourself or others in the NEWS-PAPER business. He is known along the whole length of railroad as an honest, substantial man, governed only by the pure principles of right and justice. His House has always been the resort of the better class of travelers visiting Dwight for business or for pleasure. He is quiet unassuming and gentlemanly, making it his sole business to attend to the wants and comforts of his guests without being obtrusive or familiar. Much of the pleasure derived by sportsmen visiting Dwight from Eastern states during the hunting season; is in the anticipation of the quiet comfortable home afforded them by Mr. Turner and his amiable lady, while here.

Mr. Turner is no mushroom landlord "A thing of yesterday that dies tomorrow," but a solid man who has been with us from the beginning; Dwight and its surroundings knew him in its infancy and knows him now—"An honest man, the noblest work of God"—appreciated by all for his sterling worth and integrity of character. Farmers and Railroad men together with the traveling public could know no greater calamity than one that would remove him from his present sphere of usefulness.

May the hand of time touch him gently and deal lightly with his excellent wife. May they continue in the enjoyment of health and prosperity till—we were going to say Gabriel blows his HORN, but the time is all too short, and we put it now, till the GREAT AMERICAN Central Railroad forms a junction in the town of Dwight with the C. A. & St L. R. R. This is the nearest approach to an eternity of time, we can by any arithmetical calculation arrive at with satisfaction to ourself. For according to Mr. Hummers late union sermon on the 'General Judgment' the blowing of Gabe's horn is only the beginning of the end prolonged, attenuated, and drawn out indefinitely; and we would have the old people feel we are in earnest when we extend the time of their usefulness on Earth, AD INFINITUM; hoping when a 'consummation so devoutly to be wished for,' as a certain junction does take place they will feel like others, that they have survived the period of their usefulness and are content to mingle with the dust of their fathers.

Wm. Kehler,

The Best Bands of

Wines & Liquors,

Constantly on hand.

EAST STREET, DWIGHT, ILLINOIS

DR. E. Keeley, respectfully tenders his Professional services, and will promptly answer all calls that may be made upon him. Office at G. A. Seymours Drug Store.

Dwight House,

West of Rail Road

Best House in the City,

H. CORNELL, Proprietor.

McPherson House,

Railroad Eating House,

All Freight trains, and Bloomington

Accommodation stop for Meals.

East of Railroad.

J. R. Steele, Prop'r.

NATIONAL HOUSE,

Railroad Eating House,

A few doors South of Depot.

J. A. TURNER, Prop'r.

This splendid hotel—the largest in Dwight—having undergone the necessary repairs to make it equal to anything found in the western world, for comfort and accommodations, is now open to the traveling public at a very moderate charge.

All freight trains and Wilmington & Bloomington accommodation trains eat at this Hotel, and the comfort of travelers is made a specialty. Good, warm and commodious stable attached; a civil hostler always in attendance.

T H

VOL. 2.

The following read Post Office in the d lady's hand. The se
ty, but we think th
strike for a "nobler
however if the crinc
was slightly elevat cowhide of W. W. I fessed" We publish
it purports; verita
good faith by a lov

To Prof. W.

O're hill and dal Through all the
tween,

My thoughts nu
And would, the intervene.

Nay thou art no
The farther we a Affection's firm

But binds the c
For now we sev
I learn what I h

Alas, that noth
How great inde

Farewell! I did
But thou art gor

So Angels walk
But when they

THE

The Concert on under the auspice
they was an entire nessed by every
who had a child
in the placid sour
tle ones done well
ter in proportion
the selection she
The Prof. was spa
ment, and so won