

OMNIOUS.

By some strange fatality unexplainable, the respectable Democracy of our town have allowed the Israelite, Gerson: to dub his political Head quarters, Democratic Head Quarters. This we consider, as heavy a joke (in a small way) as was played off by the Republicans in the late convention when they plastered the worn-out renegade Frank P. Blair upon the democratic party. Who is the democratic leader here? Is it Joe Gerson, Joe Dunlap, or is it Billy Keliber? There are many aspirants for the position, and we would like some information on the subject! any one of the above named parties are eligible and fully capable of leading.

SIDEWALKS.

A vigorous push in this direction is now being made by our Town Fathers to supply the people with good walking. Our walks are being repaired very substantially by the Town Commissioner—Success to him in the good work. Nothing gives an air of prosperity to a town so much as good side walks.

A Democratic paper says that in order to secure Seymour's election they must get out every voter. Can't do it, for some of them are in for a number of years.

Horace Greeley says that 5000 Grant clubs have been organized already. He wants 30,000.

The song of Seymour:—"I'm afloat, I'm afloat!" The echo of Blair:—"I'm a bloot, I'm a bloot!"

Democrats compose themselves with the reflection that while Pendleton could not be nominated, Seymour cannot be elected.

A choice lot of Perfumery at PALMERS.

H. H. ASHLEY, PHOTOGRAPHER.

Rooms on Mazon Av.
Four Doors West of Seymour's
DRUG STORE.

Wm. Keliber,

The Best Brands of

Wines & Liquors,
Constantly on hand.

EAST STREET, DWIGHT, ILLINOIS.

DR. L. E. KEELEY, respectfully tenders his Professional services, and will promptly answer all calls that may be made upon him. Office at G. A. Seymours Drug Store.

Dwight House,
West of Rail Road,

Best House in the City,
H. CORNELL, Proprietor.

Mc Pherson House,

Railroad Eating House,

All Freight trains, and Bloomington
Accommodation stop for Meals.

East of Railroad.

J. R. Steele, Pro'rr.

NATIONAL HOUSE,

Railroad Eating House,

A few doors South of Depot

J. A. TURNER, Pro'rr.

This splendid hotel—the largest in Dwight—having undergone the necessary repairs to make it equal to anything found in the western world, for comfort and accommodations, is now open to the traveling public at a very moderate charge.

All freight trains and Wilmington & Bloomington accommodation trains eat at this Hotel, and the comfort of travelers is made a specialty. Good, warm and commodious stable attached; a civil hostler always in attendance.

VOL. 2.

Miss Gertrud week in a new titled "Too Late" and well written following from ment, the inner much different lished last week tic Singing Ma tute no compar Gertrude, for you, your waifs

Singing

They said the
The dreary
The bee for h
Would me
Though still Its shadow
A little bird
Singing th

The little bir
While bea
And waited,
For blue li
Till merry M
The bright
That little b
Singing th

With voice o
That song
How hearts

Though s
As if a lesse
Where dr
That little b
Singing t

OU

In our short complaint an Dwight, of tra going to other varied, and w are demanded
On this accou wholesale gr whom they up
less and foolis
is untrue. Pe