The next object that hove in sight was 'that face and form we loved so much' sitting before the Insurance Depot, listening calmly but pensively to the natty tongue of the Sheriff elect, who was holding forth in a manner, at once dignified and imposing behind a cloud of smoke issuing from a clay pipe, proving conclusively the party beauties of our Democratic Country. A little distance beyond and before his own 'keep' was the redoubtable 'Holy Moses' wagging his jaws, hands and tongue at the same time and beside him the meek little URAH, with his never absent smile and kindly approving look; their dulcet tones lingered in our ears like the music of the pattering rain as we crossed over to the Depot till drowned in the shrill scream of the approaching mail train, and here ended our tramp for items as our papers had to be delivered. We shall resume them where we left off, however next week.

TAKE HIM UP.

Joseph L. Dunlap, offers to equip the two American citizens of African decent, who flourish the razor in this place, with a suit each, of TANNERS Uniform; if the Tanners will only allow them to walk with them and carry a torch. This is a glorious opportunity to make an accession to this respectable body and bleed Joe, a few dollars, but we would advise seeing JOSE on the matter before doing anything about it.

MARRIED

Last Sunday evening Mr. James Nevil hitched his cable to the pretty little craft, Miss Mary Kearns, for a life tow on the stream of time. May their journey be pleasant. We wish the happy pair all the happiness accorded to mortals. No cards—nor cake. Boston and Chicago papers please copy.

DR L. E. Keeley, respectfully tenders his Professional services, and will promptly answer all calls that may be made upon him. Office at G. A. Seymours Drug Store.
