

The Dwight Star.

Locals 10cts per line.

is fast winning for him a large country trade, enjoyed by no other store in Dwight. Those wishing an HONEST TRADE, will do well to go to him.

Jim Parsons, still shimmers and scintillates in his "profession" Brick, Coal and Lime, are among nature's best gifts to man; Jim wishes the fact to be understood and largely circulated—together with the words: 'Office at H. Elledge's store.'

Joseph I. has garnished his top-knot, and now rejoices in the possession of a new and beautiful "plug" Prodigious!

We expect to go "A hunting of Items," again next week, beginning at A. Goulds splendid store and ending at Hetzels well filled one. Will our friends have their latch string on the outside? with an extra cigar in a convenient place to aid our mental vision in "fixing thought upon the wing."

The long shanked, singing giant, of Ethiopian extract, known under the euphonious cognomen of W. W. Bently, has the impudence to send to this Office last week from Pontiac a poster with request, to "tick it up." The Star is no bill tucker. His impudence in this instance, is only equalled by a like one, while here HOAXING our people, a short time since, at which time he had the unblushing effrontery to ask one of our most prominent citizens to come and "shove his curtains" for a free ticket. His phiz contains brass enough to make kettles for all Livingston County.

TOO DAMP.

Chas. Goodwin of Pontiac, came up last week to teach ambitious Tanners "STAR evolutions." Unfortunately the evening promised wet, and he could not get but a few out, but those few made a very pretty display and did much credit to the teachings of the Col for the short time he was with them. Come again Col-onel, anything in the STAR line, is appreciated and is sure to win no matter what the odds may be.

RETURNED.

We are pleased to chronicle the return of Mrs. J. P. Parsons, whose absence for the past five or six weeks has been felt by all her friends. Mrs. Parsons returns with a full supply of the necessary articles to beautify and make comfortable, our town and country ladies during the present fall and coming winter, and we hope they will patronize her to the full extent that her energy and enterprise merits.

RIPPLES —An effort is being made to secure the services of the Dwight Dramatic Company for the coming season.—The Tanners were out in force on last Saturday evening and made a pretty display.—Mr. Dunne, the Catholic Clergyman is going to erect a dwelling house opposite the present church. Our thanks are due to Mr. Cullum M. C from the 8th. District, for favors received. The Ethiopian 'singingist' has been hoaxing the Free Press, with a piece of Poetry from 'Favorite Authors.' Mr. Haney, the Pastor of the M. E. Church, delivered his introductory sermon on last Sunday. He is a fine speaker and we trust that he will be appreciated, as he preaches but thirty minutes.

We notice the phiz of W. W. Bently on our streets a day or two ago.
