DIED.

WASHBURN.—In this city on the 16th. of October, Mrs.
 Adelia, wife of Frank Washburne, after an illness of a few minutes.

COMPLIMENTARY.

The PONTIAC FREE PRESS of the 15th inst. pays us the following compliment which we —all things considered—think very deservedly given. We ARE a constellation in ourself, and Heaven preserving our health, we will yet light up the Western world with the brilliancy of our genius to such a dazzling extent, that the Diamond Island found by the CHICAGO TIMES this week, will grow dark by comparison.

"The Dwight Star.—This brilliant terrestrial luminary that emits such dazzling scintillations in and around the pleasant town of Dwight, made its appearance last week considerably enlarged and otherwise greatly improved in typographical appearance. Success to you, Charles; and may the magnitude and orbit of the Star never grow less, but may it become one of the fixed planets of the Livingston county constellation."

ACCIDENTS.

Last week and this week, are prolific of accidents. Our Doctors, or rather Heath and Keeley among our many Doctors—have set four limbs and amputated one hand in that time. We are sorry we cannot give the particulars, but though we have made it our business to enquire, we have received no information beyond the names of the parties injured which we presume are Public property by this time and needs no recapitulation.

 We wish our Physicians would be more communicative in those matters, as an item of local interest benefits not only our paper, but many times prevents a recurrence of like accident by being ventilated.
