

BRIEFS.—Some ambitious "versifier" sends us this week an "inspirational" piece of doggeral, entitled "Rollicsome Dick, or THE WHITEHOUSE Innocent." The scene is laid in Dwight and the subject, a Sunday ride—We have no room for trash.

J. Boaks of pea-nut notoriety, wishes us to remind the public that he keeps the best of sweet cider constantly on hand and also the necessaries for a 'square meal' in the way of fresh Oysters and "other truck."

The M' Pherson House has again undergone a change of Proprietors, Mr. James R. Steele giving way to Mr. N. Baker. The regret we feel in the loss of so popular a landlord as Mr. Steele is more than made up to us in the gain of Mr. Baker. We know Mr. Baker to be a manly, courteous old gentleman of the old-school type, and one well calculated to please a traveling public. The Star wishes Mr. Baker a kindly God speed in the beginning of his journey with the full assurance that if he dont make it a success, it will be from no lack of care and attention on his part.

Richard Withers is in the Tree and Hedge business. He wants us to advertise him. We cannot for want of space, but will take the responsibility of recommending him as an honest and worthy dealer with the assurance that he will "go back" on nothing that he promises and all will be as he represents it. Mr. Withers is known through this and all adjoining towns as a man of integrity and one to be relied upon, his word being as good as most men's bond—The Star endorses, but dont beslobber him.

Vide change of time on the C. A & St. L. Railroad. The double track from Dwight to Odell is in running order.

We were visited by a light snow storm on Tuesday last. —If you want fresh Oysters or anything in the Confectionary line you will do well to call at Palmer's and examine his stock before purchasing elsewhere.—Dr. Chalfant has erected a building on East street, to be used by him as an office.

THAT S

On Tuesday 17th a Franco projected from somewhere in Joliet reached Dwight attracted by its liability, some were induced to confine it. On Monday it was placed in the Methodist Church we were not prepared that it gave satisfaction to the "fifty better" two hours expressed and released and flight southward heard from it a communication plain.
