AND PLAYED OUT.

Is the red whiskered jeweler, who tried, but could'nt,—to run Dwight, and all its old clocks after that comical style peculiar to himself.

MARRIED!

Wright.—Hobbs. On the 10th inst., at the residence of the brides father, Mr. T. M. Wright, and Miss Sarah J. Hobbs. May their path, to the end of life's journey, be strewn with flowers of happiness;—kards; but no kake.

Taylor.—Grubb. On the 10th inst., at the residence of Joseph I. Dunlap, Esq., Mr. W. Taylor and Miss Lydia Grubb. All of this place. May they ever in the future, as in the past, continue to be the exemplars of Parthenia's beautiful words. "Two souls with but a single thought, two hearts that beat as one," and may their lives glide smoothly to the end of life, without a ripple or a fall to mark the rushing of time to eternity.

DIED.

At the residence of Rev. Mr. Bishop, on Monday the 21st inst., Mr. Benjamin Chester, after a few hours of illness, from appoplexy. Mr. Chester leaves a large circle of earnest friends to mourn his loss.

At his residence in this city, on Saturday the 19th inst., of Consumption, Mr. Joseph Dyke. Age 66 years.

Some economical proprietor of an impounded bovine, in a laudable endeavor to extract his critter from the enclosure, one night last week, without the usual stipend to the 'city' treasury, threw down the gate and gave some other bovines liberty. A lawsuit is the result.

THE CHRISTMAS TREE'S.

A christmas tree will be exhibited in two of our Churches on Christmas eve, (this evening) loaded down with all good things incident to the holiday season, and the juveniles are rejoicing in the prospect of the good time before them. A Concert will be given in connection with each tree and a general good time is anticipated.
