and just. We did not make, nor intend to make it, a personal article; but had of necessity to use the name of the lady representing the business of the society as a basis wherefrom to reach a seeming meanness, and we did it respectfully.

We hope this will settle the matter of BRAINS. But if not and our neighbor the Courier, is not yet satisfied, they can be, by employing us to do THEIR writing. For money we will furnish that paper with as much original first class reading as any paper in the State, do all our writing in their Sanctum and have plenty of spare time then, upon our hands to conduct our own paper.

RELIGION VS GENTILITY.

Mr. Palmer:—Under the above heading, let me say, that I delight in the assertion, and its reiteration, that there is nothing so REASONABLE as Religion:—assuredly there is nothing so protective for the poor feeble being whose reliance it is; gathers a force and faith under him, which nature of itself could never attain. There is nothing so consolatory; for it creates new hopes when all earthly hopes fail. There is nothing so ennobling; for the ceaseless employment of the religious man, is, the constant fitting up of his mind and preparing it for a glorious abode. Religion is the essence, the most GENTLEMANLY thing in the world: it will ALONE GENTILIZE, if unmixed with cant, and I know nothing else that will, alone. O. J. F.
