

WHO HAS SEEN PLANCHETTE!

Some of our young people have provided themselves with these curious little instruments and now hold nightly SCEANCES for parlor amusement. Those talkative little things, are no respecter of persons but gossips as glibly about the affairs of any one they are asked about as though they were special members of the family and had a right to speak. We have not been to any of those sceances yet, but we hear something of them every day; Ladies and gentlemen of questionable age come in for their share of the gossip. Look out good people of Dwight, who have any secrets you do not wish to have revealed, Planchette is abroad and hard after you without fear of libel suits or cowhides.

THE BAND OF HOPE.

The Band of Hope gave an exhibition on Monday night at GERSON'S Hall which was so well attended that the Hall might be considered packed; the receipts however, only amounted to fifteen dollars and twenty cents; owing to the low charge made for admission. It would be invidious to mention the names of any who contributed to the evenings amusement without speaking of all and we have no space for that. We would not however be doing justice, if we did not mention Dr. Robinson and his little girl, who were indeed the roof, sides and ends of the whole thing.

THE PRESBYTERIAN SUPPER.

All we said last week of the Methodist supper might be repeated this week of the Presbyterian supper in stronger and more forcible language and then it would not be half adequate to express our opinion of the PRESBYTERIAN SUPPER. It was without qualification, THE BEST. Those not being there missed a treat.
