

ACCIDENT.

Jake Cooley while endeavoring to quiet his horses that became frightened at some passing cars on last Monday, was thrown down and badly hurt.

INDICTMENTS.

Our worthy Sheriff Wentz was in town on Tuesday last, bringing those whisky gentlemen to time, against whom indictments were found by the GRAND JURY. The way of the transgressor is hard truly.

LIVERY STABLE.

It is hinted on the streets that we are to have this necessary appendage to all towns, attached to ours in a very short time. A live man is now with us for that purpose, and we have every prospect of getting something that will rival, if not surpass our sister towns. A good livery and feed stable would pay well in Dwight if conducted in a proper manner.

We had the pleasure of being at the M' Pherson House for a meal one day this week with our urbane young friend Calais. Mr. Baker, the worthy land-lord informed us that he had cleaned and refitted the house from basement to garret, and is now prepared to accommodate the traveling public with comfortable lodgings, and every convenience. We heartily recommend this house to all who appreciate a "square meal."

We are having one of those peculiar spells of weather common only to early Spring when the young year, fickle and changeable, in its babyhood like all other created things, is undecided whether to step backward into winter or forward into summer and in its uncertainty inclines now to the one and now to the other and now to both at once—wooing summer in the sunshine, and lingering still with winter in the shade.

This splendid hotel—the largest in Dwight—having undergone the necessary repairs to make it equal to anything found in the western world, for comfort and accommodation, is now open to the traveling public at a very moderate charge. All freight trains and Wilmington & Bloomington accommodation trains eat at this Hotel, and the comfort of travelers is made a specialty. Good, warm and commodious stable attached; and a civil hostler always in attendance.
